Soviet Agrees To Withdraw Troops

CHICAGO DEMONSTRATION. One of many anti-war demonstrators arrested by police is taken to the paddy wagon in Chicago Monday. The arrests came during a "peace march" from Lincoln Park to the downtown area by militant Hippies, Yippies and vociferous anti-war demonstrators. The arrests came when demonstrators tried to defy police and marched in the street, or passed out Yippi literature. (UPI Telephoto)

Gradual Pullout Slated

PRAGUE (AP) — President Ludvik Svoboda said today the Soviet Union and the other four countries that occupy Czechoslovakia have agreed to withdraw gradually all their troops.

"We have achieved a basic agreement on the gradual, complete withdrawal of the troops. Until that time their presence is a political reality," Svoboda said in a nationwide radio address.

Even as he spoke, Soviet tanks began a withdrawal from strategic points in Prague they had occupied since the Russians and their Warsaw Pact allies moved into the country Tuesday.

Svoboda headed a Czechoslovak delegation that held four days of talks in Moscow with Soviet leaders. He and his delegation, including Alexander Dubcek, the reformist Communist party leader, returned to Prague early today.

A huge crowd gathered outside the Parliament building as the National Assembly met to learn what happened in the four days of negotiations in the Soviet capital.

The free Czechoslovak Radio warned the nation that its heaviest burden is yet to come and may include reimposition of press censorship.

"Everyone is wondering what we shall have to pay for this compromise, for no one believes that the Soviet party leadership would admit the fiasco and pointlessness of the entire action," it said.

The broadcast appealed for calm and patience.

Arriving at Prague Airport, National Assembly President Joseph Smrkovsky told a reporter: "There is no time for long talk, but I feel we shall get out of it."

The crowd cheered his arrival at the National Assembly. In the crush, one elderly man apparently suffered a heart attack, and two women fainted. Across the square, the Russian crew of an armored car watched the growing throng.

Smrkovsky appeared at a window and waved a red rose thrown to him by a young girl. He seemed on the verge of tears. The crowd chanted the names of the leaders of Czechoslovakia's liberalization drive.

Although there was no confirmation of the terms of the reported preliminary agreement. Communist party sources said the most difficult task facing their leaders was to reconcile the people to the continued presence of Soviet occupation troops in the country.

The official Soviet news agency Tass did not mention an agreement. It said the negotiations in the Soviet capital were "held in a frank and comradely atmosphere." The Communists use "frank" to signify disagreement, but "comradely" is a favorable word.

Informed sources said possibly as many as 100,000 Soviet troops would remain in Czechoslovakia, at least for a while, with orders not to interfere in the country's internal affairs. Even such reforms as press freedom might be left intact, they said, but the Free Czech Radio said censorship would apply once more to all matters concerning other Communist countries.

There were indications more talks would be needed for final agreement.

The raising of the presidential flag at Hradcany Castle at 5:25 a.m. signaled the return of President Ludvik Svoboda, who led the Czechoslovak delegation to Moscow Friday.

The Free Czech Radio said those who returned also included Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek, who came to power in January and started leading his country away from 20 years of Stalinist-type rule. Fears that his liberalization drive would spread prompted the lightning invasion Tuesday night by troops from the Soviet Union, Hungary, East Germany, Poland and Bulgaria. Dubcek was arrested by the Russians but was released for the Kremlin negotiations.

A few hours after the leaders returned, sirens, bells and car horns signaled the start of another 15-minute silent demonstration to protest the occupation.

But Czechoslovak officials expressed confidence that if the leadership consented to continued presence of Soviet troops in the country, the public would abide by their decision.

War Plank Vital 'Key'

Humphrey, McGovern 'Woo' Ohio

Make Personal Bid For Support At Party's Convention

CHICAGO (AP) — Two of the Democratic presidential candidates, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, have made personal appeals to the Ohio delegation for support at the party's national convention.

Humphrey paid the 128 Ohio delegates a high compliment Monday when he said the state has "a most important delegation and I think it's true you can decide a first ballot victory" for any of the candidates.

Humphrey and McGovern spoke at an Ohio caucus. Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota also was invited but aides said he could not fit it into his schedule. This prompted one delegate to say he felt it hurt McCarthy in Ohio by not appearing at the caucus.

Humphrey remains the heavy favorite in the Ohio camp. He garnered 60 of the state's 115 votes at a caucus in Columbus two weeks ago, but his campaign leaders in Ohio now say this has grown to betwen 80 and 85.

There also was some support cropping up for Sen. Edward M. Kennedy to bolster a draft Kennedy movement started by former Gov. Michael V. DiSalle.

William J. Kelly of Fremont said Monday he would circulate petitions Tuesday to get support for Kennedy, who had disclaimed any interest in a possible draft.

"There would be no trouble getting any votes for him if he comes out," Kelly said. "There could be a lot of votes in the Ohio delegation for him."

Both Humphrey and McGovern said the big issue of today are the Vietnan war and the urban problems.

"We need to find a satisfactory end to the war in Vietnam as quickly as we possibly can," McGovern said. "Young men from this country are dying in the swamps of Vietnam. How long can we continue this?"

Demonstrators Routed

War, Draft Protestors Chased By Chicago Police

CHICAGO (AP) — More than 3,000 demonstrators protesting the Vietnam war and the draft were routed from a North Side park with tear gas Monday night and chased, chanting and shouting, through Chicago streets.

Twenty-nine demonstrators and two reporters were hospitalized, and scores of other persons were treated for lesser injuries.

Sixty-seven persons were arrested. Details on charges were not immediately available.

Some 14 newsmen covering the protest were set on by police and beaten. Some of the newsmen had microphones and television cameras in their hands, and others had Democratic National Convention press credentials dangling from their necks.

Several mlies across the city the convention met for its first sesson, surrounded by a tight ring of security and undisturbed by outside demonstrators.

Shortly before the park confrontation, more than 1,000 of the protesters, youths in the peace movement and Yippies — members of the Youth International party — broke through several pockets of police security and marched to the downtown Democratic headquarters.

The clash in Lincoln Park, which runs several mlies along the North Side lakefront, was sparked by the protesters' refusal to obey a police order to clear the park for an 11 p.m. curfew.

The group quickly erected a barricade of picnic tables and trash cans in one corner of the park against some 600 policemen massed in a parking lot opposite them, and chanted:

"Hell no, we won't go. The parks belong to the people."

"This is the final warning," a police loudspeaker boomed. "We have informatoin that some persons in the crowd intend to injure police officers. We will take whatever measures are necessary to see that no one gets hurt, including police officers."

Floor Fight Set Tonight In Chicago

Draft-Kennedy Bid Collapsing; HHH Picks Up Florida

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humpnrey tightened today his encircling embrace on the Democratic presidential nomination with the apparent collapse of efforts to draft Sen. Edward M. Kennedy and the erosion of Southern resistance.

A party convention vote tonight on a Vietnam plank in the platform, shaped to Humphrey's liking and opposed by Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, seemed likely to provide a key countdown on the nomination outcome.

The Platform Committee put before the heavily-guarded and restricted convention a plank rejecting any unconditional halt of the bombing of North Vietnam.

Following the policies laid down by Humphrey—and opposed by McCarthy—the committee recommended a declaration that cessation of the air strikes must not endanger the safety of U.S. troops and must be made only when there is evidence of a reciprocating military de-escalation by North Vietnam.

White House associates said the adoption of such a plank could be the signal for a decision by President Johnson to fly to the convention later this week to receive its plaudits, after the presidential nomination is voted.

There was a tumultuous floor fight in prospect on the Platform Committee's version of how to get peace in Vietnam. The committee struck hard at the views of McCarthy and Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, a fledgling candidate who has failed to draw any significant support to his belated bid for the top nomination.

The committee rejected McCarthy's and McGovern's variously worded proposals for American withdrawal from Vietnam. It turned down McCarthy's suggestion that the United States make an advance commitment for the inclusion of Communist representatives in a coalition Saigon government.

Instead, it said the makeup of that government should be de-

City's Schools To Open Sept. 4

Although some inconveniences may exist for a brief period, East Liverpool public schools will open Sept. 4 as originally scheduled.

Brown explained that all equipment may not be delivered by opening day and cafeterias may not be ready. If not, students will be requested to carry their lunch for the first three days. Library supplies may be among those delayed, he pointed out.

Architect Robert Beatty informed the board that everything possible is being done to get ready for the students opening day.

The delay in finishing touches to the new educational complex resulted from the recent wage dispute by custodians in the school system.

IN OTHER action last night, the board hired 11 teachers, accepted the resignation of one and rejected two resignations because of lack of replacements.

Robert W. Thompson resigned to teach in the Youngstown school system.

Resignations also were received from John Hermick and Miles Light. With no replacements available, the board went on record as rejecting them, but members pointed out that since both want to accept positions out of state they cannot

American Artillery Site Under Rocket And Mortar Assault

SAIGON (AP) — An American artillery base on the jungled infiltration corridor northwest of Saigon came under blistering, 200-round rocket and mortar barrage today and then beat back a weak infantry assault.

By the light of flares from circling support planes, the Americans cut down at least 27 enemy soldiers.

U.S. headquartes estimates 7,500 enemy slain in the intensified Viet Cong assaults of the last nine days, and the Communist command appeared to be shifting to less costly rocket and mortar attacks. The allied command reported heavy barrages at camps and towns from the demilitarized zone south to the Mekong Delta.

In addition to the 200-shell barrage at Fire Base Rawlins, about 50 miles northwest of Saigon, enemy gunners raked four other posts along the infiltration route northwest of the city. Two of the camps were hit by light infantry assaults.

Shellings were reported at a dozen South Vietnamese and American camps in the Mekong Delta and in the Duc Lap area where more than 800 enemy died attempting to overrun a U.S. Special Forces camp over the weekend.

Ex-Mayor Hits Plan

Findlay Parking Stirs 'Yes,' 'No'

The former mayor of Findlay thinks a five - level parking garage completed in 1963 at a cost of $500,000 is "the biggest white elephant this town has ever seen."

John Sausser, an auto dealer who left office at the end of 1967 after four years as the city's chief executive, admits there are two schools of thought on the municipal parking structure. He's a member of the faction that opposed the idea before the garage was built in the city of 40,000 and still believes it was unwise.

THE STRUCTURE was built atop what originally was a city-operated metered parking lot. It provides spaces for about 300 cars. The ground level area still operates as a metered lot. Anyone who parks above street level must get a ticket from an attendant, park his own auto and then ride an elevator to the sidewalk.

The fact the structure has not been utilized by the public nearly to its full capacity means that its not paying its own way, Sausser declared.

"It takes all the revenue from the parkng garage, plus the receipts from all the rest of our metered lots, to retire the bonds on the parking garage," he declared. "And that will continue to be the situation for another 10 years."

Sausser said the patronage has increased " a little" as the months go by, added that it is far from living up to the expectations of its proponents.

SAUSSER added that the structure was "ill-conceived and ill - designed." He asserted that the plans were drawn so as to allow "the maximum amount of parking space" and as a result drivers — women particularly — have difficulty in negotiating the ramps to the upper floors.

"Women are scared of it," he said. "Once they scratch a fender rounding a corner on a ramp, they don't want to park there anymore." Another bugaboo is the fact that a motorist

Doctors Say Ike Still On Critical List

Optimism Voiced On Outlook In Medical Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's condition is still "critical," his doctors reported today, but they now feel that they can voice "cautious optimism" about his outlook.

In a medical bulletin at 10 a.m. EDT doctors of Walter Reed Army Hospital reported:

"Gen. Eisenhower spent a restful evening. Although heart irritability persists to a varying degree there have been no major disturbances since Saturday evening.

"Despite his long period of confinement in bed, the general's spirits remain remarkably good.

"Insofar as is possible in the setting of Gen. Eisenhower's still critical condition, his physicians have expressed a note of cautious optimism."

Thus it appeared that the five-star general who suffered his seventh heart attack on Aug. 16, had rallied, at least temporarily, from a series of setbacks of varying degree of severity that had beset him beginning with last Saturday morning.

The 77-year-old general and former president endured a concentrated new series of rapid spasms early Monday. The irregularity levelled off during the day, doctors said.

The fibrillation can leave the brain without oxygen-rich blood and cause death if not stopped quickly.

Chicago Called Stalag '68 Because Of Rifles, Wire

By MAURICE RAPPORT

CHICAGO — The overwhelming presence of police, National Guardsmen and federal troops, plus barbed wire barricades and a chain link fence, have prompted visitors to label this city "a fortress, a concentration camp, an armed camp. . . ."

And after firsthand observation, I can agree with these observers fully. To me, as I arrived at O'Hare Airport and traveled downtown, it had most of the earmarks of a well-guarded prison. Some of the wags have labeled Chicago "Stalag '68," "Fort Daley" and "The Citadel."

It is difficult to approach the International Amphitheater, site of the convention, and one must be armed with full credentials in order to enter. And as one leaves, a policeman eyeing the crowd seems to be thinking: "Don't try to make any trouble, buster."

We could feel the tension from

Air Pollution Group Sets Meeting Tonight

NEW CUMBERLAND — A meeting of the New Cumberland Air Pollution Committee will be held tonight at 7:30 at the library following the group's "peaceful picket" Monday at the Ohio Edison Plant in Toronto. The pickets were removed today.

The committee was protesting what it called almost unbearable conditions over the weekend in the New Cumberland area. The group said every stack was blowing hot fly-ash at a high rate and the demonstration was staged to show that nothing has been done to combat the problem.

The plant was incorrectly reported as located at Stratton in Monday's Review.

Auctioned Buildings Net $27,503

A total of $27,503 was received by the board of education Monday night when action was completed on the auction of six buildings which will be abandoned in the East Liverpool school system because of the new educational complex which will be placed in operation Sept. 4.

The Central Building was sold to the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters on its bid of $13,100; the Glenmoor Building to Douglass Capehart on his bid of $10,000; the Neville Building to the Hall China Co. on its bid of $4,000, and the Pleasant Heights, Garfield and Lincoln buildings were turned over to the city of East Liverpool for $1 each.

A $1,000 bid for the Horace Mann Building was rejected because of provisions in the city zoning code and it and the McKinley Building will be placed up for auction again in 30 days, board members said.

No bids were received on the McKinley Building originally.

The board pointed out that the three buildings to be taken over by the city are to be transferred under an agreement similar to that entered into with Kent State University relative to the use of the old high school building on E. 4th St.

If the buildings are, at any time, used for other than recreational or educational purposes, ownership will revert to the board of education, with the buildings to be in a condition at least comparable to that when sold. The board also reserves the right to remove any items it desires, not only from these buildings, but from all of those auctioned.

In addition, the new owners are to be responsible for recording the deed and any expenses incurred in transfer of the properties.

SUPT. PAUL Blair again pointed out that, under state law, the money realized from the sale of the buildings must go into the capital improvement fund and cannot be used for salary increase or any other operating expenses.

It is understood that the clock in the tower will be dismantled and saved under the clause

Rapport Finds Air Tense

Chicago Called Stalag '68 Because Of Rifles, Wire

Maurice Rapport of Thompson Ave., an 18th Congressional District delegate to the Democratic National Convention, is acting as The Review's special correspondent in Chicago. This is the first in a series of stories.

By MAURICE RAPPORT

CHICAGO — The overwhelming presence of police, National Guardsmen and federal troops, plus barbed wire barricades and a chain link fence, have prompted visitors to label this city "a fortress, a concentration camp, an armed camp. . . ."

And after firsthand observation, I can agree with these observers fully. To me, as I arrived at O'Hare Airport and traveled downtown, it had most of the earmarks of a well-guarded prison. Some of the wags have labeled Chicago "Stalag '68," "Fort Daley" and "The Citadel."

It is difficult to approach the International Amphitheater, site of the convention, and one must be armed with full credentials in order to enter. And as one leaves, a policeman eyeing the crowd seems to be thinking: "Don't try to make any trouble, buster."

We could feel the tension from

Air Pollution Group Sets Meeting Tonight

NEW CUMBERLAND — A meeting of the New Cumberland Air Pollution Committee will be held tonight at 7:30 at the library following the group's "peaceful picket" Monday at the Ohio Edison Plant in Toronto. The pickets were removed today.

The committee was protesting what it called almost unbearable conditions over the weekend in the New Cumberland area. The group said every stack was blowing hot fly-ash at a high rate and the demonstration was staged to show that nothing has been done to combat the problem.

The plant was incorrectly reported as located at Stratton in Monday's Review.

Auctioned Buildings Net $27,503

A total of $27,503 was received by the board of education Monday night when action was completed on the auction of six buildings which will be abandoned in the East Liverpool school system because of the new educational complex which will be placed in operation Sept. 4.

The Central Building was sold to the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters on its bid of $13,100; the Glenmoor Building to Douglass Capehart on his bid of $10,000; the Neville Building to the Hall China Co. on its bid of $4,000, and the Pleasant Heights, Garfield and Lincoln buildings were turned over to the city of East Liverpool for $1 each.

A $1,000 bid for the Horace Mann Building was rejected because of provisions in the city zoning code and it and the McKinley Building will be placed up for auction again in 30 days, board members said.

No bids were received on the McKinley Building originally.

The board pointed out that the three buildings to be taken over by the city are to be transferred under an agreement similar to that entered into with Kent State University relative to the use of the old high school building on E. 4th St.

If the buildings are, at any time, used for other than recreational or educational purposes, ownership will revert to the board of education, with the buildings to be in a condition at least comparable to that when sold. The board also reserves the right to remove any items it desires, not only from these buildings, but from all of those auctioned.

In addition, the new owners are to be responsible for recording the deed and any expenses incurred in transfer of the properties.

SUPT. PAUL Blair again pointed out that, under state law, the money realized from the sale of the buildings must go into the capital improvement fund and cannot be used for salary increase or any other operating expenses.

It is understood that the clock in the tower will be dismantled and saved under the clause

Balloon Sighted

LISBON — Paul Birtalan, Salem pilot, and Vincent Weyant, Lisbon skydiver, located John Oliver's hot-air balloon Monday evening in a cornfield on the Paul Kolarik farm five miles northeast of here. They sighted it from the air. The 50,000-cubic-foot bag, which is 70 feet long when deflated, had been the object of search since Saturday night.

One-Way Traffic Set During Bridge Work

One - way traffic went into effect today on the Chester Bridge during minor repairs by the Ohio Highway Department to strengthen the span.

Flagmen will be on duty, with the one - way traffic to continue for about 10 days.

The single - lane will be observed from approximately 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, with normal conditions returning at night. The announcement was made by Don Hood, Chester city clerk, upon notification of the repairs.

Auto Figures In 2 Crashes In Short Span

A Glenmoor area man's car was involved in two traffic mishaps within a span of a few moments late Monday night — one in West End and another on the California Hollow section of Dresden Ave., police reported.

John Smith, 42, of MC 22, Lisbon St., was taken to City Hospital after the second of the two crashes, in which his car hit a parked auto and then traveled nearly 200 feet before overturning, officers said. Smith also was charged with reckless driving.

Police said the first collision was timed at 10:51 on Fairview St. 100 yards west of Division St. A 1958 model car later identified as Smith's failed to stop after striking a parked 1961 four-door sedan owned by Beauford Joyce of 931 Fairview St., officers said.

A man who witnessed the collision gave chase. As Smith's car proceeded north on Dresden Ave. at a point 1,000 feet north of Trentvale St., it hit a parked 1962 sedan owned by Lula L. Reese of RD 3, police said. The Reese auto was shoved 30 feet by the impact. Smith's car then continued 176 feet before overturning. His auto was written off as a total loss.

A mishap on Market St. 50 feet north of E. 5th St. at 1:25 a. m. today damaged a parked 1964 four-door sedan owned by Florena Hall, 37, of 209 E. 3rd St. Her auto was bumped on the rear bumper and quarter panel by a backing 1967 two-door sedan driven by Ray A. Lambert, 28, of the Vista Motel, officers said. Lambert was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Meanwhile, Kenneth Calhoun of 2239 St. Clair Ave. told police Monday night the right rear fender of his 1962 two-door sedan was damaged when struck by a hit-skip vehicle about 1 a. m. yesterday while parked in a driveway at Mayberry Ln. and Curry St.

Conference Set In Cattle Study

The Wooster Cattle Feeders Association, in cooperation with county and area extension services and the Ohio Agricultural Research and Development Center, will sponsor an areawide beef cattle business outlook conference Sept. 5.

The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. in the OARDC administration building near Wooster. Dr. Richard O. Smith, extension specialist in animal science, and Dr. Paul R. Thomas, extension specialist in livestock marketing, will speak. They have just returned to Ohio State University from the regional outlook conference at Peoria, Ill.

Dr. Charles Martin, area extension agent for animal industry, says everyone interested in the cattle business is invited.

Donkeys Pay Price For Death In Family

WINDHOEK, South West Africa (AP) — A distraught African widow, Mrs. Maria Keib, destroyed a pair of donkeys and a donkey cart because she was convinced they brought death to her family.

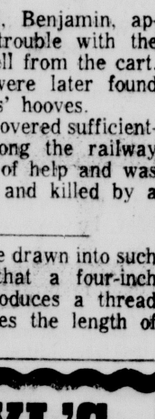

Her husband, Benjamin, apparently had trouble with the donkeys and fell from the cart. Blood stains were later found on the donkeys' hooves.

HHH Passes 900-Mark, Survey Says

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's first ballot strength in The Associated Press survey shot past the 900 mark today when he picked up the bulk of the Florida votes relinquished by Sen. George A. Smathers.

Smathers endorsed Humphrey Monday and said he would withdraw as a favorite son candidate for president either before or during the first ballot scheduled Wednesday night. Of Florida's 63 votes, 45 went to Humphrey, 6 to McCarthy and 12 were uncommitted.

The AP poll, based on primary results, public pledges and the results of caucuses and AP delegate checks, gave Humphrey 937½ of the 1,312 votes needed for the nomination. Only firmly committed votes are counted, not delegates leaning to a candidate.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota trailed with 482¼ votes, while Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota was a distant third with 43½. Favorite sons held 364½, other candidates drew 15¾ and 700½ were uncommitted.

Kay Francis, Ex-Film Star, Claimed At 63

NEW YORK (AP) — Kay Francis, the tall brunette glamour girl who became one of the highest paid Hollywood stars of the 1930's, died Monday following a long illness. She was 63.

She had been a cancer patient at New York Hospital but returned home to her apartment on East 64th Street Saturday. At her request there will be no funeral service.

Her acting career began on Broadway but quickly shifted to Hollywood where she made more than 50 films including, "Raffles," "Mandalay," "I Found Stella Parish" and "Give Me Your Heart."

She was a popular success and her financial rewards were substantial. In 1937 she received $227,500 in salary while an industrial executive like the chairman of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. earned $85,000.

In her lavishly furred suits and long slinky evening gowns she won a reputation as one of filmland's best-dressed women; she was considered the epitome of glamour and sexiness in her era.

In 1946, after an 18-year absence from the Broadway stage, she returned in "State of the edy and she ended her acting Union," the Pulitzer Prize comcareer in summer stock.

Chicago

the time our plane landed at O'Hare until we checked into the Sherman House, headquarters for our delegation. Police and National Guard troops were stationed throughout the airport and we saw them at the entrances to all major hotels. The street crossings on the way to our hotel were guarded by police and Army personnel. All of them were wearing plastic riot helmets in distinguishing colors —red, blue, white and green. It looked like a style show of helmets.

Mrs. Rapport, who accompanied me to the 1960 convention in Los Angeles and the 1964 convention in Atlantic City, wondered out loud: "How can the business of the Democratic party be conducted peacefully in an atmosphere such as this?"

OUR FIRST stop after arrival was at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, the main Democratic headquarters. We found police on guard outside and in the lobby. We stopped first at the headquarters of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, which occupies a space nearly as large as the Westgate School.

The area was covered with 12 big booths, such as one sees at a county fair, and in every one of them workers were handing out buttons and other literature, auto bumper stickers, cold drinks of all kinds and coffee and rolls. I saw a sign offering a babysitter service, just another way of wooing delegates. All the walls were covered with banners and placards shouting the name "McCarthy."

At the other end of the lobby in the same hotel, there's a huge headquarters manned by Sen. Hubert Humphrey's supporters. It's decorated with the same wide assortment of banners and streamers, but there's an added attraction — continuous live vaudeville entertainment! We watched a couple of the acts and found them very good.

As we left the hotel, we ran into a demonstration by young men and women carrying placards: "Stop the Bombing in Vietnam," "We Want Peace" and other such slogans. Police stood by watchfully, but there was no disorder and the demonstration ended in about 15 minutes.

THE STRIKE of taxi drivers and bus operators has posed still another problem for troubled Chicago. Our Ohio delegation has chartered four buses to transport us to and from the amphitheater. The buses will cost the delegation $1,600, putting a large hole in our budget.

But everyone here has transportation problems. Despite all the furore in the last few weeks about a communications snarl, I have been able to place local and long-distance telephone calls without any difficulty.

There's a vice presidential "boomlet" under way here that will interest the people of Eastern Ohio.

Signs have been placed in the lobbies of all the major hotels urging our own congressman, Wayne L. Hays, for the vice-presidential spot.

He also praised Don Gosney of Columbiana, the congressman's secretary and 18th District state central committeeman.

Humphrey said that the congressman "is high on my list" for consideration for the vice presidency, but at least six others are serious contenders for the spot. The Ohio delegation cheered when the vice president praised Wayne Hays.

THE CAUCUS began with a breakfast at our hotel. Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota, a late entry for the presidency, was the first to speak. In a question period that followed, Gosney asked the senator to explain his position on the Vietnam war. McGovern was applauded when he replied that he is opposed to the war and would end it as quickly as possible, if elected.

The vice president, next to speak to the delegation, was greeted with a tremendous reception as he entered the caucus room. He declared that Ohio could have a major role in helping him win the nomination on the first ballot.

Sen. McCarthy also was scheduled to speak to the Ohio delegation, but sent a note expressing regret that his busy schedule would not allow him to speak.

There was one bright note as the last of the delegates arrived Monday. The sweltering temperatures moved out of the city and the temperature dropped to a cool 70 degrees.

New cafeteria personnel at Westgate will be Ruth Griffin, Sheila Peters and Betty Russell.

All cafeteria workers have passed the civil service examination, the board said. Persons scoring the highest were interviewed first. All hired will serve on a 90-day probationary basis.

The salary schedule for cafeteria personnel was set at $14 per day for managers at East, LaCroft and North Elementary and the high school, $12.25 a day for assistant manager at the high school, $11.56 per day for cafeteria workers, $1.60 per hour for substitute workers and $1.75 per hour for cashiers.

IN OTHER business, the board granted permission for Mark Ring to attend Beaver Local Schools, with tuition to be paid by his parents. Edwin L. Ring of Annesley Rd. asked the board for permission for Mark to continue to attend Beaver Local on this basis as he has been doing.

The Tri-State Promoters Club was given permission to use East Junior High Gym for a concert on Sunday, Oct. 20, and Ralph Finley of Smith and Phillips was given permission to rent Westgate Auditorium for an organ concert on Oct. 31. The Tri-state promoters will pay custodial fees and Smith and Phillips will pay $75, plus custodial fees. It was pointed out that this is the community project rate, since admission is not charged to the organ concert.

A letter was received from the board of elections asking for permission to use East Junior, Westgate, LaCroft and Taft buildings for voting places. Permission was granted.

The next meeting will be Sept. 9, since the next regular meeting night will fall on Labor Day.

Varied Hearings Held At Chester In Mayor's Court

A Chester man was fined $10 and costs Monday night when he appeared before Mayor Harold Ash on a charge of failure to have his vehicle under control.

Stanley Riggs of Middle Run Rd., was fined as the result of an accident in which his car struck a utility pole at the foot of the hill on Route 30 and Carolina Ave.

Scheduled to appear Wednesday night before Ash are Robert Caldwell of Stoney Fork, Ky., on a charge of reckless operation; Richard David Patterson of Hookstown RD 1, violation of curfew and fighting, and Chuck Therman Higgins of Chester RD, for fighting in public. All posted $57 bonds.

Ronald Lee Bailey of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, paid fines totaling $50, while Robert Jay Knight, 21, of Congo remains in Chester City Jail in lieu of $185 in fines following a hearing Monday before Ash.

The fines resulted from an incident Friday night at Fannie's Tavern on Carolina Ave. Police were called after Bailey and Knight were said to be causing a disturbance. They were asked to leave the tavern by the proprietor, but returned later, Bailey carrying a knife and Knight a lead pipe, police said.

The pair was pursued by Chester police and some teenage boys and finally apprehended near the Chester Bridge.

Bailey was fined $25 for carrying a concealed weapon $10 for profanity and $15 for resisting arrest.

Knight was charged with disturbing the peace, resisting arrest and using profane language.

15 Are Sent For Induction

LISBON — Columbiana County Selective Service Board 16, which this morning forwarded 15 men to Cleveland for induction, will send another group next Tuesday to meet the September call.

Board 16 is to furnish 12 men for induction and 45 for pre-induction physical examinations Sept. 3.

There was no pre-induction physical quota for August.

Board 16 inductees follow by communities:

Lisbon — Charles L. Rhodes.

HHH Passes 900-Mark, Survey Says

CHICAGO (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's first ballot strength in The Associated Press survey shot past the 900 mark today when he picked up the bulk of the Florida votes relinquished by Sen. George A. Smathers.

Smathers endorsed Humphrey Monday and said he would withdraw as a favorite son candidate for president either before or during the first ballot scheduled Wednesday night. Of Florida's 63 votes, 45 went to Humphrey, 6 to McCarthy and 12 were uncommitted.

The AP poll, based on primary results, public pledges and the results of caucuses and AP delegate checks, gave Humphrey 937½ of the 1,312 votes needed for the nomination. Only firmly committed votes are counted, not delegates leaning to a candidate.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota trailed with 482¼ votes, while Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota was a distant third with 43½. Favorite sons held 364½, other candidates drew 15¾ and 700½ were uncommitted.

Kay Francis, Ex-Film Star, Claimed At 63

NEW YORK (AP) — Kay Francis, the tall brunette glamour girl who became one of the highest paid Hollywood stars of the 1930's, died Monday following a long illness. She was 63.

She had been a cancer patient at New York Hospital but returned home to her apartment on East 64th Street Saturday. At her request there will be no funeral service.

Her acting career began on Broadway but quickly shifted to Hollywood where she made more than 50 films including, "Raffles," "Mandalay," "I Found Stella Parish" and "Give Me Your Heart."

She was a popular success and her financial rewards were substantial. In 1937 she received $227,500 in salary while an industrial executive like the chairman of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. earned $85,000.

In her lavishly furred suits and long slinky evening gowns she won a reputation as one of filmland's best-dressed women; she was considered the epitome of glamour and sexiness in her era.

In 1946, after an 18-year absence from the Broadway stage, she returned in "State of the edy and she ended her acting Union," the Pulitzer Prize comcareer in summer stock.

the time our plane landed at O'Hare until we checked into the Sherman House, headquarters for our delegation. Police and National Guard troops were stationed throughout the airport and we saw them at the entrances to all major hotels. The street crossings on the way to our hotel were guarded by police and Army personnel. All of them were wearing plastic riot helmets in distinguishing colors —red, blue, white and green. It looked like a style show of helmets.

Mrs. Rapport, who accompanied me to the 1960 convention in Los Angeles and the 1964 convention in Atlantic City, wondered out loud: "How can the business of the Democratic party be conducted peacefully in an atmosphere such as this?"

OUR FIRST stop after arrival was at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, the main Democratic headquarters. We found police on guard outside and in the lobby. We stopped first at the headquarters of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, which occupies a space nearly as large as the Westgate School.

The area was covered with 12 big booths, such as one sees at a county fair, and in every one of them workers were handing out buttons and other literature, auto bumper stickers, cold drinks of all kinds and coffee and rolls. I saw a sign offering a babysitter service, just another way of wooing delegates. All the walls were covered with banners and placards shouting the name "McCarthy."

At the other end of the lobby in the same hotel, there's a huge headquarters manned by Sen. Hubert Humphrey's supporters. It's decorated with the same wide assortment of banners and streamers, but there's an added attraction — continuous live vaudeville entertainment! We watched a couple of the acts and found them very good.

As we left the hotel, we ran into a demonstration by young men and women carrying placards: "Stop the Bombing in Vietnam," "We Want Peace" and other such slogans. Police stood by watchfully, but there was no disorder and the demonstration ended in about 15 minutes.

THE STRIKE of taxi drivers and bus operators has posed still another problem for troubled Chicago. Our Ohio delegation has chartered four buses to transport us to and from the amphitheater. The buses will cost the delegation $1,600, putting a large hole in our budget.

But everyone here has transportation problems. Despite all the furore in the last few weeks about a communications snarl, I have been able to place local and long-distance telephone calls without any difficulty.

There's a vice presidential "boomlet" under way here that will interest the people of Eastern Ohio.

Signs have been placed in the lobbies of all the major hotels urging our own congressman, Wayne L. Hays, for the vice-presidential spot.

He also praised Don Gosney of Columbiana, the congressman's secretary and 18th District state central committeeman.

Humphrey said that the congressman "is high on my list" for consideration for the vice presidency, but at least six others are serious contenders for the spot. The Ohio delegation cheered when the vice president praised Wayne Hays.

THE CAUCUS began with a breakfast at our hotel. Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota, a late entry for the presidency, was the first to speak. In a question period that followed, Gosney asked the senator to explain his position on the Vietnam war. McGovern was applauded when he replied that he is opposed to the war and would end it as quickly as possible, if elected.

The vice president, next to speak to the delegation, was greeted with a tremendous reception as he entered the caucus room. He declared that Ohio could have a major role in helping him win the nomination on the first ballot.

Sen. McCarthy also was scheduled to speak to the Ohio delegation, but sent a note expressing regret that his busy schedule would not allow him to speak.

There was one bright note as the last of the delegates arrived Monday. The sweltering temperatures moved out of the city and the temperature dropped to a cool 70 degrees.

Victor Carosiello of Wellsville, a long-time employe of the Review, Health at Westgate Junior High. Carosiello attended Geneva College and now is attending the Kent State Academic Center. He holds a bachelor of science degree.

Miss LaVonne Middlesworth, Latin at the high school. Miss Middlesworth's family resides in Steubenville and she has been teaching in Columbus this past year.

IN OTHER personnel action, Mrs. Dorothy Shepherd was granted a first semester leave of absence and Mrs. Joyce Kontnier, a secretary, was granted a leave from Sept. 30 through Jan. 3. Both leaves were granted for reasons of health.

Wanda Lowe, who had been employed at Westgate cafeteria, will serve as manager of the high school cafeteria. Working with her in the cafeteria will be Alberta Bates, Margaret Bridge, Maxine Hill, Marquerite Hargreaves, Nina Myers, Phoebe Shaffer, Marilyn Sprouse and Mildred Stewart.

Manager of the LaCroft cafeteria will be Vada Blackhurst. Workers will be Ruth Huggins, Barbara Spangler, and Pauline Wilson.

Thelma Andrews will be manager at North Elementary. Her workers will be Eileen Bailey, Margie Ludwig, Ruby Rutter and Evelyn Skidmore.

Macel Cox will be manager at East Elementary cafeteria which will also serve students from East Junior. Workers will be Martha Adkins, Jean Farnsworth, Vallie Fiorello, Frances Martin, Beverly Reynolds and Martha Rose.

New cafeteria personnel at Westgate will be Ruth Griffin, Sheila Peters and Betty Russell.

All cafeteria workers have passed the civil service examination, the board said. Persons scoring the highest were interviewed first. All hired will serve on a 90-day probationary basis.

The salary schedule for cafeteria personnel was set at $14 per day for managers at East, LaCroft and North Elementary and the high school, $12.25 a day for assistant manager at the high school, $11.56 per day for cafeteria workers, $1.60 per hour for substitute workers and $1.75 per hour for cashiers.

IN OTHER business, the board granted permission for Mark Ring to attend Beaver Local Schools, with tuition to be paid by his parents. Edwin L. Ring of Annesley Rd. asked the board for permission for Mark to continue to attend Beaver Local on this basis as he has been doing.

The Tri-State Promoters Club was given permission to use East Junior High Gym for a concert on Sunday, Oct. 20, and Ralph Finley of Smith and Phillips was given permission to rent Westgate Auditorium for an organ concert on Oct. 31. The Tri-state promoters will pay custodial fees and Smith and Phillips will pay $75, plus custodial fees. It was pointed out that this is the community project rate, since admission is not charged to the organ concert.

A letter was received from the board of elections asking for permission to use East Junior, Westgate, LaCroft and Taft buildings for voting places. Permission was granted.

The next meeting will be Sept. 9, since the next regular meeting night will fall on Labor Day.

Varied Hearings Held At Chester In Mayor's Court

A Chester man was fined $10 and costs Monday night when he appeared before Mayor Harold Ash on a charge of failure to have his vehicle under control.

Stanley Riggs of Middle Run Rd., was fined as the result of an accident in which his car struck a utility pole at the foot of the hill on Route 30 and Carolina Ave.

Scheduled to appear Wednesday night before Ash are Robert Caldwell of Stoney Fork, Ky., on a charge of reckless operation; Richard David Patterson of Hookstown RD 1, violation of curfew and fighting, and Chuck Therman Higgins of Chester RD, for fighting in public. All posted $57 bonds.

Ronald Lee Bailey of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, paid fines totaling $50, while Robert Jay Knight, 21, of Congo remains in Chester City Jail in lieu of $185 in fines following a hearing Monday before Ash.

The fines resulted from an incident Friday night at Fannie's Tavern on Carolina Ave. Police were called after Bailey and Knight were said to be causing a disturbance. They were asked to leave the tavern by the proprietor, but returned later, Bailey carrying a knife and Knight a lead pipe, police said.

The pair was pursued by Chester police and some teenage boys and finally apprehended near the Chester Bridge.

Bailey was fined $25 for carrying a concealed weapon $10 for profanity and $15 for resisting arrest.

Knight was charged with disturbing the peace, resisting arrest and using profane language.

About That Second Spot

Sen. McGovern told the Cleveland City Club he could best serve his party and his nation by remaining in the Senate, rather than in the vice presidency.

Gov. Ronald Reagan, a losing Republican presidential candidate, felt he could be more effective in his job as top man in California and disqualified himself as vice presidential material early in the game.

THERE IS NO REASON to doubt the sincerity of these men or others of like mind.

The less-than-enthusiastic response to the call for a vice president is understandable. The vice president must work in the shadow of the president, who is the dominant force in our governmental system.

Too good a performance from No. 2 upstages the top man and is taboo. Independent thinking is not encouraged because the president is the voice of the administration and the veep is his biggest cheerleader.

Ask anyone to name the vice presidents who have served this nation and you will have another reason for the lackluster image of the job. Ever hear of Hannibal Hamlin? He was President Lincoln's first vice president.

Columnist Raymond Moley suggests the majority of modern presidential candidates have been following the "Flynn rule" in selecting their running mates.

Edward J. Flynn, strategist for Franklin Roosevelt, believed that no vice presidential candidate could bring votes to a ticket so the wisest choice would be to pick a man who would lose the fewest votes.

This has not always been the case but it is another piece in the complex jigsaw puzzle called the search for a vice president.

The big question today is whether the traditional process of selecting a veep is in the public interest. It was less than five years ago that President Kennedy was assassinated.

We would like to hear some candidates say they believe the vice presidency offers a unique opportunity to serve America and explain why they feel they are qualified for the job.

It would be a pleasant change from the current practice of equating a chance at the vice presidency with an offer to take a walk with the hangman.

Hoping For Breakthrough

The crisis cycle has even encircled the American elm.

This summer has seen the death of American elms throughout New England.

The battle to save the majestic trees has been going on since 1930 without success.

LATEST REPORTS say the elms will vanish from New England in a few years. The hope now is to preserve a few of the trees some place in the midwest for another generation with the same methods that have failed in the East.

A new dimension was added to the problem this summer when it was learned that more than half the infections occur underground and are unrelated to the bark beetle normally blamed for spreading the disease.

Experts say the disease is caused by a fungus that can be carried from tree to tree by the bark beetle. When one tree is infected, the underground process develops because of the elm characteristics that its roots connect to those of nearby trees.

So sap flows from one tree to the next carrying the bud cells of the killing fungus infection and can destroy all the trees along a street.

ELABORATE SCHEMES have been designed to protect trees. Trenches are dug around them to isolate them from the roots of others. Trees are sprayed. The ground is injected with poison.

But so far the methods have not been able to stop the beetle, the fungus or the death of the graceful trees.

A researcher in Quebec has a new theory on the nature of the disease and experiments are being carried out to see if the disease can be stopped.

Tree lovers have their fingers crossed that a breakthrough is near.

At least this is one crisis in which Americans and interested people in other countries are working together to solve — that should help.

A Mockery

The mockery of present laws is one significant reason there is not more enthusiasm in some quarters for gun control.

Last week Vito Giacalone, reportedly a Mafia leader, appeared in municipal court in Grosse Point, Mich., on a charge of possessing unregistered handguns.

Found guilty, he was fined $100 and sentenced to one year's probation.

The court proved a number of things by its handling of the case.

First, it proved its consistency — the crushing punishment meted out to Vito was exactly the same as that given his brother, Anthony (Tony Jack) Giacalone, on the same charge two days earlier.

Second, it verified the widely held belief by both crooks and decent people that the courts aren't too serious about cracking down on crime.

Third, provided an example that the court is merciful and didn't want to create a hardship on either of the Giacalone boys.

Fourth, it shamefully ridiculed law-abiding people across this nation who are depending upon the courts to preserve justice and stop the takeover of America by hoods.

Guess Who?

By Art Buchwald

CHICAGO — One of Hubert Humphrey's most important decisions if he wins the Democratic nomination is to choose a vice presidential candidate. Many names have been dropped in the hopper, but Mr. Humphrey has still been unable to make up his mind. Last week he consulted with leaders of the party, governors, mayors, senators and even with President Lyndon Johnson. While his conversations with all of them were off the record I managed to get a transcript of what is said to have been his talk with President Johnson.

Art Buchwald

"Hubert, ah hear you're having trouble finding the right man for vice president."

"Yes sir, Mr. President. It isn't easy."

"AH DON'T IMAGINE it is. Ah've been giving it a lot of thought mahself, and it seems to me the man you want should have experience in the executive branch of the government, should know the ins and outs of the Vietnamese War, and should have his finger on the problems of law and order."

"I agree with you Mr. President, but where do I find such a man?"

"Ah also feel he should have been a vice president at one time so he knows what the job's all about."

"But there is no one living who has already been vice president of the United States except Richard Nixon, Henry Wallace, Harry Truman and . . . and . . . and . . . oh, no."

"Hubert, why are you stuttering?"

"Mr. President, you weren't thinking of . . . you couldn't be . . I mean "

"Let's be practical about this Hubert. Ah said ah would never run for president of the United States. But ah never said ah wouldn't run for vice president."

"WHY ON EARTH would you want to be vice president after being president of the United States?"

"Ah like Washington, Hubert, and as far as ah'm concerned it doesn't make any difference if you're president or vice president. Ah've always considered the two jobs interchangeable." You have?"

"Now don't look so surprised. Ah'm not trying to sell myself, Hubert, but ah think ah could be a great service to you. For one thing an could unite all the elements of the party. As your vice presidential candidate ah could defend mah administration a lot easier than you could. And thirdly, you've got to admit unlike the Republicans, man, ah'm a household name."

"That you are. But it seems to me, Mr. President, it would be so embarrassing for you to take second place on the ticket."

"Hubert, you've known me long enough to know titles don't bother me. We could work as a team the way we have been doing. Ah could take a lot of things off your shoulders."

"Such as what?"

"Ah could take the war and peace negotiations off your hands; ah could worry about the economy; ah could deal with the civil rights issue; ah could meet with the Soviets, and ah could address joint sessions of Congress; stuff like that which would leave you free to be president of all the people."

"I don't know what to say, Mr. President. I owe you so much I hate to ask you to do anything more for me."

"HORSEFEATHERS, Hubert. You don't owe me anything. You earned a crack at the presidency by just being yourself. If you don't want me to be your vice president, ah'll certainly understand."

"Of course, I want you to be my vice president, Mr. President. Nothing would honor me more than to have you on the ticket. It's just that—." "Speak up, Hubert."

"With all your grandchildren and everything, won't the White House be very crowded?"

"Ah thought of that Hubert, and ah've ordered them to fix up Blair House for you and Muriel, across the street."

Upsetting The Applecart

VICTOR RIESEL

Humphrey Hot Line To Labor

CHICAGO: — When I crossed Wencelas Square to get to Radio Prague on the morning of Thursday, Sept. 8, 1966, the pockmarked facade of its huge stone headquarters still bore proudly the scars of the Nazi bullets which cut down rebellious Czech citizens.

Victor Riesel

Then, I was one signal of freedoms to come. For 38 minutes, my host permitted me to broadcast, uncensored, on freedom and the meaning of turbulence in America. Before we went on "mike," my interviewer laughed, saying I had come between "My Fair Lady," then playing in Prague, and "Hello, Dolly!" soon to hit the boards.

Then, Prague was beginning to chuckle, even to laugh aloud. Now, two years later, Radio Prague's building has been gutted by Soviet cannon.

There is no laughter. Just tears and the final broadcast notes that freedom had died amid the sputtering and stuttering of Soviet bullets.

To my friends, who may be dead, as chairman of the Freedom of the Press Committee of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, and as former president of the Overseas Press Club, I and my colleagues salute you.

And we pray that the signal for freedom will be bounded again for you soon.

THE YAMMERING OF red machine guns and the sonic booms of Soviet MIGs re-echo in this convention city. Ironically, the Soviet invasion has made a powerful figure here of AFL-CIO President George Meany, the one American the Soviet Party's Central Committee hates most.

As the leader of 14 million trade unionists, this stocky, laconic, craglike man has been the most consistent, inflexible backer of President Johnson's policies.

It was George Meany who virtually shoved Hubert Humphrey into the presidential race just hours after Lyndon Johnson "threw in his hand." Mr. Meany's forces have provided Hubert Humphrey with cheering, howling, applauding audiences to offset the masses of angry young protestors.

For being a one-man squadron of hawks, for refusing to deal with the Soviets, for reiterating that the Communists never change, for refusing to join in all cultural and labor exchanges with the Iron Curtain bloc, for vetoing international labor cooperation with USSR's so-called "All-Union Central Council of Trade Unions," Mr. Meany and his courageous foreign policy aide, Jay Lovestone, have been lashed and mocked by Walter Reuther.

All this has been prelude to a behind-the-scenes battle which would have exploded immediately after the national convention adjourned here. The fight pivoted on the recommendation by Llewellyn Thompson, American Ambassador to Moscow, that the U.S. appoint a labor attache to the USSR, thereby, according to the AFL-CIO, automatically acknowledging the "legitimacy" of the Red labor movement claiming 80 million members.

Such an appointment would have closed a gap in America's cultural relations with the Soviet Union. The U.S. and the USSR have exchanged practically every conceivable type of delegation except labor groups.

MR. MEANY HAS prevented such labor exchanges. He charges there is no Russian labor movement. He points out that its "president" is General Alexander Shelepin, former Soviet Secret Police chief and past member of the State and Party's Control Commissions (which spy on the Soviet leaders themselves).

And Mr. Meany was ready to do battle with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Humphrey if they approved the naming of a labor attache to Moscow.

The AFL-CIO chief would have opened his fight smack at the beginning of the campaign, on Sept. 16, when the AFL-CIO Executive Council meets in New York.

Had the Soviet air and ground forces not invaded freedom-seeking Czechoslovakia, Mr. Meany's struggle might have been hopeless. The Administration's "Bridges to the East" are already in place.

Walter Reuther, still searingly attacking the AFL-CIO chief, was planning a trip to Moscow for conversation with Gen. Shelepin and perhaps Messrs. Kosygin and Brezhnev.

Walter's brother Victor already has conferred with Gen. Shelepin. Victor was there last June. Other United Auto Workers delegations had gone to Budapest and Bucharest while Victor visited the Czechs before flying to Russia.

SO STRONG WAS THIS bridge-building sentiment in the UAW leadership that its national board, meeting last week, would not vote endorsement of Hubert Humphrey because of his Vietnam policy. The Vice President has been talking with Walter Reuther seeking such a public statement in his behalf before the nominating convention. But Mr. Reuther could not deliver a united board.

However, George Meany not only has backed "Hubert" publicly, not only has organized a floor fight for Mr. Humphrey, but he has also been pressuring state delegations to vote for "HHH" on the first ballot.

Constantly much of the argument against the Meany forces has been based on their inflexible fight against international Communism. Now that the invasion has vindicated Mr. Meany, he is stronger than ever.

If Mr. Humphrey wins the presidency there is no doubt that the "hot line" between the White House and the House of Labor will not be slashed.

'Fort Chicago'?

CHICAGO — For the first time in history, the American people are reading that a national political convention is assembled in a city which is more of an armed camp than a peaceful metropolis.

The delegates who are to choose the presidential and vice presidential nominees of the Democratic party find themselves in a state of fear inside and outside the amphitheater where the convention is being held.

Not only are there almost 6,000 national guardsmen on duty, but 12,000 police, plus Secret Service men and detectives, have been mobilized to prevent militant groups from interferring with the proceedings or injuring in any way those in attendance at the covention.

In and around Chicago, some 7,000 federal troops are standing by on the alert in case a riot erupts and goes beyond the control of the local police and National Guard. The presence of these troops helps to calm the worries of Chicago's huge population.

IN ADDITION, a strike of bus and taxi drivers has made it difficult for employes to get to the hotels, thus interrupting normal services. The delegates themselves will have a hard time going to and from the convention hall and the hotels.

Nobody can recall any such circumstances surrounding a national convention heretofore. The Republican Congressional Newsletter speaks of "Fort Chicago," and regards the whole setup as evidence of the breakdown of law and order in America.

Ironically, one of the most important issues before the convention is how to deal with violations of "law and order." Yet some of the Democratic leaders think the question has been "overemphasized." Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark is one of these.

The controversy, of course, is not confined to the city of Chicago. It has been raised all over the United States, as riots and disorders have broken out during the last three years which have resulted in the loss of many lives, injuries to thousands of persons, and damage running into the hundreds of millions of dollars.

All across the country, the American voters are waiting to see what the Democratic party proposes to do about organized crime and widespread disorder.

The tendency is to blame the situation on the failure of local authorities or else on poverty or racial friction. But the real reason for the breakdown in many cities is the growth of racial consciousness and the use of "marches" and "demonstrations" as a device to publicize the attitudes of militant groups on current issues.

Law and order will not be preserved merely by resolutions in a platform of a national convention. It will take the wholehearted cooperation of the federal government with the states and cities, and public confidence must be restored in all areas of law enforcement, including the courts.

THERE HAS to be a new attitude developed — militant groups will have to learn that nothing is gained by "demonstrations" that incite to violence.

Politically speaking, the country is asking for a "change," whether it be by a new Democratic administration or by a Republican president or a Republican majority in Congress.

Many of the big cities are controlled by the Democrats. Lots of the voters there will express their resentment this time against the local bosses for failing to come to grips with crime problems, and will refrain from casting their votes for Democrats.

These are the risks which the Democratic party faces today, and it will take more than platform resolutions to allay the fears of the people generally.

As for the selection of a presidential nominee at the Democratic National Convention, all signs point to a victory for Hubert Humphrey. He has a commanding lead. Enough states which wish to get in on the "bandwagon" movement usually provide—to a candidate with such a lead—the votes needed to make a majority on the first ballot.

It is not what will be said in an acceptance speech or in a platform that will give the American people the assurances they want. They are anxious to know whether a constructive effort will be made by a new president not only to get at the causes of the violence and disorders but to use force firmly and resolutely so that militant groups will not venture again to engage in demonstrations of a provocative nature.

About That Second Spot

Sen. McGovern told the Cleveland City Club he could best serve his party and his nation by remaining in the Senate, rather than in the vice presidency.

Gov. Ronald Reagan, a losing Republican presidential candidate, felt he could be more effective in his job as top man in California and disqualified himself as vice presidential material early in the game.

THERE IS NO REASON to doubt the sincerity of these men or others of like mind.

The less-than-enthusiastic response to the call for a vice president is understandable. The vice president must work in the shadow of the president, who is the dominant force in our governmental system.

Too good a performance from No. 2 upstages the top man and is taboo. Independent thinking is not encouraged because the president is the voice of the administration and the veep is his biggest cheerleader.

Ask anyone to name the vice presidents who have served this nation and you will have another reason for the lackluster image of the job. Ever hear of Hannibal Hamlin? He was President Lincoln's first vice president.

Columnist Raymond Moley suggests the majority of modern presidential candidates have been following the "Flynn rule" in selecting their running mates.

Edward J. Flynn, strategist for Franklin Roosevelt, believed that no vice presidential candidate could bring votes to a ticket so the wisest choice would be to pick a man who would lose the fewest votes.

This has not always been the case but it is another piece in the complex jigsaw puzzle called the search for a vice president.

The big question today is whether the traditional process of selecting a veep is in the public interest. It was less than five years ago that President Kennedy was assassinated.

We would like to hear some candidates say they believe the vice presidency offers a unique opportunity to serve America and explain why they feel they are qualified for the job.

It would be a pleasant change from the current practice of equating a chance at the vice presidency with an offer to take a walk with the hangman.

Hoping For Breakthrough

The crisis cycle has even encircled the American elm.

This summer has seen the death of American elms throughout New England.

The battle to save the majestic trees has been going on since 1930 without success.

LATEST REPORTS say the elms will vanish from New England in a few years. The hope now is to preserve a few of the trees some place in the midwest for another generation with the same methods that have failed in the East.

A new dimension was added to the problem this summer when it was learned that more than half the infections occur underground and are unrelated to the bark beetle normally blamed for spreading the disease.

Experts say the disease is caused by a fungus that can be carried from tree to tree by the bark beetle. When one tree is infected, the underground process develops because of the elm characteristics that its roots connect to those of nearby trees.

So sap flows from one tree to the next carrying the bud cells of the killing fungus infection and can destroy all the trees along a street.

ELABORATE SCHEMES have been designed to protect trees. Trenches are dug around them to isolate them from the roots of others. Trees are sprayed. The ground is injected with poison.

But so far the methods have not been able to stop the beetle, the fungus or the death of the graceful trees.

A researcher in Quebec has a new theory on the nature of the disease and experiments are being carried out to see if the disease can be stopped.

Tree lovers have their fingers crossed that a breakthrough is near.

At least this is one crisis in which Americans and interested people in other countries are working together to solve — that should help.

A Mockery

The mockery of present laws is one significant reason there is not more enthusiasm in some quarters for gun control.

Last week Vito Giacalone, reportedly a Mafia leader, appeared in municipal court in Grosse Point, Mich., on a charge of possessing unregistered handguns.

Found guilty, he was fined $100 and sentenced to one year's probation.

The court proved a number of things by its handling of the case.

First, it proved its consistency — the crushing punishment meted out to Vito was exactly the same as that given his brother, Anthony (Tony Jack) Giacalone, on the same charge two days earlier.

Second, it verified the widely held belief by both crooks and decent people that the courts aren't too serious about cracking down on crime.

Third, provided an example that the court is merciful and didn't want to create a hardship on either of the Giacalone boys.

Fourth, it shamefully ridiculed law-abiding people across this nation who are depending upon the courts to preserve justice and stop the takeover of America by hoods.

Guess Who?

By Art Buchwald

CHICAGO — One of Hubert Humphrey's most important decisions if he wins the Democratic nomination is to choose a vice presidential candidate. Many names have been dropped in the hopper, but Mr. Humphrey has still been unable to make up his mind. Last week he consulted with leaders of the party, governors, mayors, senators and even with President Lyndon Johnson. While his conversations with all of them were off the record I managed to get a transcript of what is said to have been his talk with President Johnson.

Art Buchwald

"Hubert, ah hear you're having trouble finding the right man for vice president."

"Yes sir, Mr. President. It isn't easy."

"AH DON'T IMAGINE it is. Ah've been giving it a lot of thought mahself, and it seems to me the man you want should have experience in the executive branch of the government, should know the ins and outs of the Vietnamese War, and should have his finger on the problems of law and order."

"I agree with you Mr. President, but where do I find such a man?"

"Ah also feel he should have been a vice president at one time so he knows what the job's all about."

"But there is no one living who has already been vice president of the United States except Richard Nixon, Henry Wallace, Harry Truman and . . . and . . . and . . . oh, no."

"Hubert, why are you stuttering?"

"Mr. President, you weren't thinking of . . . you couldn't be . . I mean "

"Let's be practical about this Hubert. Ah said ah would never run for president of the United States. But ah never said ah wouldn't run for vice president."

"WHY ON EARTH would you want to be vice president after being president of the United States?"

"Ah like Washington, Hubert, and as far as ah'm concerned it doesn't make any difference if you're president or vice president. Ah've always considered the two jobs interchangeable." You have?"

"Now don't look so surprised. Ah'm not trying to sell myself, Hubert, but ah think ah could be a great service to you. For one thing an could unite all the elements of the party. As your vice presidential candidate ah could defend mah administration a lot easier than you could. And thirdly, you've got to admit unlike the Republicans, man, ah'm a household name."

"That you are. But it seems to me, Mr. President, it would be so embarrassing for you to take second place on the ticket."

"Hubert, you've known me long enough to know titles don't bother me. We could work as a team the way we have been doing. Ah could take a lot of things off your shoulders."

"Such as what?"

"Ah could take the war and peace negotiations off your hands; ah could worry about the economy; ah could deal with the civil rights issue; ah could meet with the Soviets, and ah could address joint sessions of Congress; stuff like that which would leave you free to be president of all the people."

"I don't know what to say, Mr. President. I owe you so much I hate to ask you to do anything more for me."

"HORSEFEATHERS, Hubert. You don't owe me anything. You earned a crack at the presidency by just being yourself. If you don't want me to be your vice president, ah'll certainly understand."

"Of course, I want you to be my vice president, Mr. President. Nothing would honor me more than to have you on the ticket. It's just that—." "Speak up, Hubert."

"With all your grandchildren and everything, won't the White House be very crowded?"

"Ah thought of that Hubert, and ah've ordered them to fix up Blair House for you and Muriel, across the street."

VICTOR RIESEL

Humphrey Hot Line To Labor

CHICAGO: — When I crossed Wencelas Square to get to Radio Prague on the morning of Thursday, Sept. 8, 1966, the pockmarked facade of its huge stone headquarters still bore proudly the scars of the Nazi bullets which cut down rebellious Czech citizens.

Victor Riesel

Then, I was one signal of freedoms to come. For 38 minutes, my host permitted me to broadcast, uncensored, on freedom and the meaning of turbulence in America. Before we went on "mike," my interviewer laughed, saying I had come between "My Fair Lady," then playing in Prague, and "Hello, Dolly!" soon to hit the boards.

Then, Prague was beginning to chuckle, even to laugh aloud. Now, two years later, Radio Prague's building has been gutted by Soviet cannon.

There is no laughter. Just tears and the final broadcast notes that freedom had died amid the sputtering and stuttering of Soviet bullets.

To my friends, who may be dead, as chairman of the Freedom of the Press Committee of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, and as former president of the Overseas Press Club, I and my colleagues salute you.

And we pray that the signal for freedom will be bounded again for you soon.

THE YAMMERING OF red machine guns and the sonic booms of Soviet MIGs re-echo in this convention city. Ironically, the Soviet invasion has made a powerful figure here of AFL-CIO President George Meany, the one American the Soviet Party's Central Committee hates most.

As the leader of 14 million trade unionists, this stocky, laconic, craglike man has been the most consistent, inflexible backer of President Johnson's policies.

It was George Meany who virtually shoved Hubert Humphrey into the presidential race just hours after Lyndon Johnson "threw in his hand." Mr. Meany's forces have provided Hubert Humphrey with cheering, howling, applauding audiences to offset the masses of angry young protestors.

For being a one-man squadron of hawks, for refusing to deal with the Soviets, for reiterating that the Communists never change, for refusing to join in all cultural and labor exchanges with the Iron Curtain bloc, for vetoing international labor cooperation with USSR's so-called "All-Union Central Council of Trade Unions," Mr. Meany and his courageous foreign policy aide, Jay Lovestone, have been lashed and mocked by Walter Reuther.

All this has been prelude to a behind-the-scenes battle which would have exploded immediately after the national convention adjourned here. The fight pivoted on the recommendation by Llewellyn Thompson, American Ambassador to Moscow, that the U.S. appoint a labor attache to the USSR, thereby, according to the AFL-CIO, automatically acknowledging the "legitimacy" of the Red labor movement claiming 80 million members.

Such an appointment would have closed a gap in America's cultural relations with the Soviet Union. The U.S. and the USSR have exchanged practically every conceivable type of delegation except labor groups.

MR. MEANY HAS prevented such labor exchanges. He charges there is no Russian labor movement. He points out that its "president" is General Alexander Shelepin, former Soviet Secret Police chief and past member of the State and Party's Control Commissions (which spy on the Soviet leaders themselves).

And Mr. Meany was ready to do battle with Mr. Johnson and Mr. Humphrey if they approved the naming of a labor attache to Moscow.

The AFL-CIO chief would have opened his fight smack at the beginning of the campaign, on Sept. 16, when the AFL-CIO Executive Council meets in New York.

Had the Soviet air and ground forces not invaded freedom-seeking Czechoslovakia, Mr. Meany's struggle might have been hopeless. The Administration's "Bridges to the East" are already in place.

Walter Reuther, still searingly attacking the AFL-CIO chief, was planning a trip to Moscow for conversation with Gen. Shelepin and perhaps Messrs. Kosygin and Brezhnev.

Walter's brother Victor already has conferred with Gen. Shelepin. Victor was there last June. Other United Auto Workers delegations had gone to Budapest and Bucharest while Victor visited the Czechs before flying to Russia.

SO STRONG WAS THIS bridge-building sentiment in the UAW leadership that its national board, meeting last week, would not vote endorsement of Hubert Humphrey because of his Vietnam policy. The Vice President has been talking with Walter Reuther seeking such a public statement in his behalf before the nominating convention. But Mr. Reuther could not deliver a united board.

However, George Meany not only has backed "Hubert" publicly, not only has organized a floor fight for Mr. Humphrey, but he has also been pressuring state delegations to vote for "HHH" on the first ballot.

Constantly much of the argument against the Meany forces has been based on their inflexible fight against international Communism. Now that the invasion has vindicated Mr. Meany, he is stronger than ever.

If Mr. Humphrey wins the presidency there is no doubt that the "hot line" between the White House and the House of Labor will not be slashed.

Services will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Cannon Funeral Home, Midland, for William C. Whitcomb, 80, of Paonia, Colo., a former resident of the Midland area who died Monday morning at Rochester General Hospital following a week's illness.

Burial will be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. in Corydon Cemetery, Corydon, Pa.

Democrats

termined "by fair and safeguarded elections open to all major political parties and factions."

This preliminary victory for Humphrey's viewpoint was reflected by other developments in an early morning hour session that seemed to propel the vice president even further ahead of his rivals for the top nomination.

Insurgent Democrats backed by McCarthy failed in their challenge to the seating of a Texas delegation headed by Gov. John Connally, who is expected to take his 104-vote group into Humphrey's camp.

The challengers, who sought 50 seats on the delegation, were turned back by a vote of 1,368 to 955.

Supporters of McCarthy and McGovern wanted the argument delayed. Humphrey asked that the questions be settled immediately. He got his way by a 1,691½ to 875 vote, substantially larger than the 1,312 votes needed for a presidential nomination.

The hastily floated balloon for a presidential nomination for Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts was quickly deflated. Kennedy called former Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio to instruct him not to place the senator's name in nomination.

DiSalle immediately hedged on his announced intention of doing so but said someone else might.

Frank Mankiewiez, former press secretary to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy now working for McGovern, said the whole operation of trying to draft the surviving Kennedy brother had been "wishful thinking."

"A lot of delegates have been casting about for somebody else because they don't think Humphrey can win," he said. He said he thinks that if McGovern doesn't make the grade the South Dakota senator will free any delegates pledged to him without endorsing any candidate. Previously, McGovern had said he would withdraw in favor of Kennedy if the latter wanted to run.

Jesse R. Unruh, chairman of the 174-vote California delegation, who had been reported flirting with the draft Kennedy movement, said there could be a decision by that group later in the day where it will go.

McCarthy refused to accept Kennedy's disclaimer as final. "I think he is still a potential candidate in this convention," McCarthy said Monday night.

The facade of Southern resistance to Humphrey's nomination, built around objections to the immediate abolition of the unit rule by which a majority can control the entire vote of any state delegation, was crumbling.

By a voice vote, delegates threw out the century-old unit rule. The result affected nine Southern delegations which had protested that the Northerners were running over them.

Former Gov. Price Daniel of Texas said all the Southerners wanted to do was delay such action until the next convention. In a bow to his querulous Dixie backers, Humphrey sided with them in a statement read to the convention, suggesting that the

This seemed to be the satisfying solvent that unglued the Southern holdout against a first ballot nomination of the vice president.

Sen. George Smathers of Florida led what could become a parade of Southern favorite sons bowing out in favor of Humphrey. He predicted the vice president would get 57 of the states' 63 votes.

The vice president's forces had counted on a domino reaction earlier among these local leaders but it had been slow to materialize.

Despite his obviously long lead for the nomination, Humphrey told members of the Ohio delegation that whether he wins on the first ballot may be in their hands.

Two state delegates who didn't want to be quoted by name said they think Humphrey may get up to 90 votes from Ohio on the critical roll call.

The latest Associated Press canvass of publicly committed delegates gave Humphrey 937½, McCarthy 482¼, McGovern 43½, uncommitted 780½, favorite sons 362½, others 15¾.

In a seven-hour session lasting until 3:40 a.m. EDT, the convention took a historic step by seating a racially mixed "loyalist" delegation to supplant the regular group chosen by the Mississippi state party.

But the convention turned down by a 1,041½ to 1,413 vote —amid cries of "No, no, no"— an effort to seat a delegation of insurgents from Georgia.

The rebels, led by state Rep. Julian Bond, wanted to overturn a compromise that would have seated his group along with the regular party delegates and split the state's 43 votes between them.

The law and order theme emphasized by the Republicans in their nominating convention under Nixon's leadership was echoed in some of the speeches to the delegates at Monday night's opening session.

The committee-approved platform, to be voted on tonight, said: "We must and will not tolerate violence."

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, instigator of the tightest security regulations ever placed on any political convention called it a sign of faith that the party was meeting in disturbance-threatened, strike-ridden Chicago, where armed guards outnumber delegates about five to one.

Daley said that the whole opposition campaign was built on law enforcement, which he himself has vowed will be maintained in Chicago. He said that Democrats know that "we must carry out a host of positive programs if we are to eliminate the underlying causes of crime and disorder."

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii, the keynoter, said the nation was torn by dissension and disrespect. He said Americans must reject violence and anarchy and work instead to continue and expand the Johnson administration foreign and domestic programs.

"Poverty, discrimination and deprivation, as evil as they are, do not justify anarchy or violence, looting or burning, murder or assassination," he said. "Law and order must be respected and maintained to protect the rights of all citizens."

The law was out in force all over Chicago and such anti-war demonstrations as protestors were able to mount were marked by their relative mildness.

A crowd of about 1,000 surrounded a statue of a Civil War hero, heckled supporters of Humphrey, shook their fists at the headquarters of the Democratic national committee but dispersed without violence except for the injury of two participants.

This gathering in a lakefront park followed a march on central police headquarters, where the protestors had gone to demonstrate againt the arrest of two of their leaders at a previous rally.

Accidents Occur Within Minutes Of Each Other

Wellsville police investigated two accidents which occurred at virtually the same time Monday morning.

At 11:10, Troxel E. Groves, 30, of New Waterford, driving a 1963 sedan belonging to Grafton Motor Sales, pulled up in the right lane of traffic at the light at Wells Ave. and Route 45. Lance D. Hudson, 16, of 1248 Hillcrest Rd., Wellsville, operating a 1968 panel truck belonging to his father, Dean Hudson, pulled into the center lane designated for a left turn. The vehicles collided.

Damage was done to the left side of the car operated by Groves and the right front and side of the Hudson truck. The accident is still under investigation.

Stephen Joy, 17, of 532 Broadway, Wellsville, driving a 1960 sedan on 9th St. between Washington and Commerce Sts. at 11:15, struck a parked vehicle owned by George W. Huff, 37, of 529 4th St., Steubenville. Joy was cited by police for failure to have his vehicle under control and was remanded to Juvenile Court.

Work Completed On Initial Phases Of Sewer Lines

The Herman Brothers Co., Inc., of Youngstown, contractor, has completed work on the first phase of a $44,779 city sanitary sewer project — installing a line that will serve the new school complex on Maine Blvd.

Granted a contract Aug. 1 by the Board of Public Utilities, the firm installed a line that runs from the new high school to Eutaw St. and then along Montrose Ave. to Broad and Haywood Sts. in Beechwood.

The sewer also is designed to serve a 130-unit complex for housing for low - income families which the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority is scheduled to build in the same Maine Blvd. area.

There are two smaller phases of the project. The same concern is scheduled to build a line in the Division St.-Lisbon St.-Gibbs Alley area off W. 9th St. and in the Anderson Blvd.-Cornell St.-Pepin Alley district below Jennings Ave.

Ohio Fair Attendance Over 640,000-Mark

The 1968 fair got off to a slower start, partly because of hot weather. But by Monday the paid attendance of 344,919 was well ahead of the paid attendance by the fifth day of last year.

Total attendance Monday was 100,005, the five-day total over 640,000.

Gold has been hammered into sheets as thin as 1-250,000 of an inch.

Repairs Are Set For 3 Bridges

LISBON — Whan Construction Co. of Leetonia RD 2 will repair three bridges over the Penn Central in Knox Township for $50,398.60.

Whan's proposal compares with the estimate of $53,262.60 by John Ursu, Columbiana County engineer, and was the lowest of three opened Monday by the county commissioners.

Porterfield-Binger of Youngstown bid $50,431.65 and H. A. Nardi of Dennison $52,902.

The Pennsylvania Railroad installed the steel, wood - deck bridges many years ago on Bowman, Center and Buck Rds. north of Homeworth. They will be strengthened to carry school buses.

Mortar, Grenade Launcher Found In Hippie Pad

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police found a 60 millimeter mortar and a grenade launcher when they raided what they described as a motorcycle-hippie pad on the East Side Monday.

Five persons, including two 18-year-old girls, were taken in for questioning.

Detectives continued to search for ammunition for the guns in the three-story frame house attached to the rear of a store.

The mortar and grenade launcher are believed to be German-made and of World War II vintage. The mortar is in working order and police will make tests of the launcher to see if it works.

Police said the five are associated with motorcycle clubs.

Detectives said they also found paraphernalia used to take narcotics.

Deaths and Funerals

Miss Pearl Shenkel

Miss Pearl Shenkel, 94, of 825 Northside Ave. died Monday at 8:45 p. m. in City Hospital following a four-week illness. She resided with a nephew, Elwyn Shenkel.

Miss Shenkel was born May 7, 1874, in East Liverpool, a daughter of the late Jacob Shenkel and Anna Cowen Shenkel. She was a lifetime resident.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Martin Funeral Home, with the Rev. Allen Conway of the church officiating. Burial will follow in Riverview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday night.

Mrs. Mary Johnson

Mrs. Mary Costello Johnson of 1122 Center St., Wellsville, widow of the late Howard O. Johnson, died suddenly Monday night at 8:30 at her home.

She was born June 25, 1884, in East Liverpool, a daughter of the late Patrick Costello and Kathryn McKinnon Costello. Mrs. Johnson had resided in Wellsville 55 years.

She attended the First Methodist Church, Wellsville, and was a member of the GIA Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers 417 of Alliance.

Her husband died in February 1946.

Survivors include three sons, Robert Johnson of Massillon, Richard Johnson, serving in Vietnam, and Ralph Johnson of Freedom; three daughters, Miss Kathryn Johnson, at home; Mrs. Charles R. (Lucille) Waggoner of East Liverpool, and Mrs. Fred H. (Jean) Barnett of Mechanicstown; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson of Chester; 12 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Oscar Johnson

Friends may call at the MacLean Funeral Home, Wellsville, after 5 p. m. today to view the body of Mrs. Hazel Zeiner Johnson, 71, of 403 Garfield Ave., McDonald, Ohio. A former Wellsville resident, she died suddenly Sunday at 1:30 p. m. at home of an apparent heart attack.

Survivors include two brothers, Earl Eschbacher and James Eschbacher of Washington, D. C.; five sisters, including Mrs. Freda Krahling and Mrs. Mamie Eggleston of Washington, D. C.; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Herman Handley

Services will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Arner Funeral Chapel at Chester for Herman Everett Handley, 70, of lower Washington St., Newell, who died Sunday in City Hospital.

The Rev. Robert R. Schondelmayer of Wellsville's First Christian Church will officiate.

Mr. Handley served with the U. S. Corps of Engineers at former Lock 8, near Newell, for 32 years, retiring in 1959.

Additional services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Mt. Vernon Church at Teays, W. Va., near Charleston, where burial will follow.

William Whitcomb

Services will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Cannon Funeral Home, Midland, for William C. Whitcomb, 80, of Paonia, Colo., a former resident of the Midland area who died Monday morning at Rochester General Hospital following a week's illness.

Burial will be held Thursday at 2:30 p. m. in Corydon Cemetery, Corydon, Pa.

termined "by fair and safeguarded elections open to all major political parties and factions."

This preliminary victory for Humphrey's viewpoint was reflected by other developments in an early morning hour session that seemed to propel the vice president even further ahead of his rivals for the top nomination.

Insurgent Democrats backed by McCarthy failed in their challenge to the seating of a Texas delegation headed by Gov. John Connally, who is expected to take his 104-vote group into Humphrey's camp.

The challengers, who sought 50 seats on the delegation, were turned back by a vote of 1,368 to 955.

Supporters of McCarthy and McGovern wanted the argument delayed. Humphrey asked that the questions be settled immediately. He got his way by a 1,691½ to 875 vote, substantially larger than the 1,312 votes needed for a presidential nomination.

The hastily floated balloon for a presidential nomination for Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts was quickly deflated. Kennedy called former Gov. Michael V. DiSalle of Ohio to instruct him not to place the senator's name in nomination.

DiSalle immediately hedged on his announced intention of doing so but said someone else might.

Frank Mankiewiez, former press secretary to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy now working for McGovern, said the whole operation of trying to draft the surviving Kennedy brother had been "wishful thinking."

"A lot of delegates have been casting about for somebody else because they don't think Humphrey can win," he said. He said he thinks that if McGovern doesn't make the grade the South Dakota senator will free any delegates pledged to him without endorsing any candidate. Previously, McGovern had said he would withdraw in favor of Kennedy if the latter wanted to run.

Jesse R. Unruh, chairman of the 174-vote California delegation, who had been reported flirting with the draft Kennedy movement, said there could be a decision by that group later in the day where it will go.

McCarthy refused to accept Kennedy's disclaimer as final. "I think he is still a potential candidate in this convention," McCarthy said Monday night.

The facade of Southern resistance to Humphrey's nomination, built around objections to the immediate abolition of the unit rule by which a majority can control the entire vote of any state delegation, was crumbling.

By a voice vote, delegates threw out the century-old unit rule. The result affected nine Southern delegations which had protested that the Northerners were running over them.

Former Gov. Price Daniel of Texas said all the Southerners wanted to do was delay such action until the next convention. In a bow to his querulous Dixie backers, Humphrey sided with them in a statement read to the convention, suggesting that the

This seemed to be the satisfying solvent that unglued the Southern holdout against a first ballot nomination of the vice president.

Sen. George Smathers of Florida led what could become a parade of Southern favorite sons bowing out in favor of Humphrey. He predicted the vice president would get 57 of the states' 63 votes.

The vice president's forces had counted on a domino reaction earlier among these local leaders but it had been slow to materialize.

Despite his obviously long lead for the nomination, Humphrey told members of the Ohio delegation that whether he wins on the first ballot may be in their hands.

Two state delegates who didn't want to be quoted by name said they think Humphrey may get up to 90 votes from Ohio on the critical roll call.

The latest Associated Press canvass of publicly committed delegates gave Humphrey 937½, McCarthy 482¼, McGovern 43½, uncommitted 780½, favorite sons 362½, others 15¾.

In a seven-hour session lasting until 3:40 a.m. EDT, the convention took a historic step by seating a racially mixed "loyalist" delegation to supplant the regular group chosen by the Mississippi state party.

But the convention turned down by a 1,041½ to 1,413 vote —amid cries of "No, no, no"— an effort to seat a delegation of insurgents from Georgia.

The rebels, led by state Rep. Julian Bond, wanted to overturn a compromise that would have seated his group along with the regular party delegates and split the state's 43 votes between them.

The law and order theme emphasized by the Republicans in their nominating convention under Nixon's leadership was echoed in some of the speeches to the delegates at Monday night's opening session.

The committee-approved platform, to be voted on tonight, said: "We must and will not tolerate violence."

Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, instigator of the tightest security regulations ever placed on any political convention called it a sign of faith that the party was meeting in disturbance-threatened, strike-ridden Chicago, where armed guards outnumber delegates about five to one.

Daley said that the whole opposition campaign was built on law enforcement, which he himself has vowed will be maintained in Chicago. He said that Democrats know that "we must carry out a host of positive programs if we are to eliminate the underlying causes of crime and disorder."

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii, the keynoter, said the nation was torn by dissension and disrespect. He said Americans must reject violence and anarchy and work instead to continue and expand the Johnson administration foreign and domestic programs.

"Poverty, discrimination and deprivation, as evil as they are, do not justify anarchy or violence, looting or burning, murder or assassination," he said. "Law and order must be respected and maintained to protect the rights of all citizens."

The law was out in force all over Chicago and such anti-war demonstrations as protestors were able to mount were marked by their relative mildness.

A crowd of about 1,000 surrounded a statue of a Civil War hero, heckled supporters of Humphrey, shook their fists at the headquarters of the Democratic national committee but dispersed without violence except for the injury of two participants.

This gathering in a lakefront park followed a march on central police headquarters, where the protestors had gone to demonstrate againt the arrest of two of their leaders at a previous rally.

Meeting Airs Welfare Job For Hancock

Norman Ferrari reported meeting with Mrs. Josephine Alexander of the Department of Welfare in Charleston to discuss the need of a permanent welfare worker to be employed at the home when the Hancock County Children's Home Board met Monday.

He announced he plans to meet again with Mrs. Alexander and Miss Marry Jane Hess of Wheeling when Mrs. Alexander visits Wheeling.

Ferrari also reported on a meeting of the fair committee with Oliver Johnson, county extension agent. Ferrari presented an outline of the farm planning prepared by Johnson and also blueprints for several new farm buildings.

The farm committee plans to request a meeting with the county commissioners to discuss the work of the committee and to present the blueprints.

In other business, a letter was authorized to be sent to the Board of Education requesting that the children be exempt from the text book fee and also that they be provided hot lunches without charge.

The next meeting will be Sept. 30.

which provides the board with control over various items.

The other bidder for Central was William B. Mangano, who offered $12,500.

The Merchants Association of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce originally presented a proposal for acquisition of the land, but pointed out last night it no longer was interested in view of other developments.

A DISCUSSION also developed last night over the Glenmoor building. Ward said he felt that this is the only site in the Glenmoor area that could serve as a recreational and meeting place, such as the other three the city had purchased. McConville agreed.

"We need the money he said, but a playground is important." They both felt the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church was trying to do in that area what the city was doing in the other areas. Ward commented, "We need the $10,000, but if we do get it, we will still need more.

The Capehart bid, however, was accepted by a 3-to-2 vote.

The church bid was for $500.

Blair explained that the $1,000 bid by David Starr Enterprises for Horace Mann was rejected because it had been indicated the building would be used for a warehouse, in contradiction to the city code.

The board again split on the decision, with McConville voting no—feeling the bid should be accepted—and Ward abstaining.

In addition to President Samuel Brown, McConville and Ward, other board members present were William Blair and Thomas Rodfong.

Chester Outlines Street Program

They follow: Pennsylvania Ave., First to Second; Indiana Ave., Second to Third; Fifth St., railroad track to River St.; Carolina, Eighth to and through Carolina; Lycia, Lawrenceville hill to dead end; Orion Ave., east and west; Georgia Ave., No. 517 to end; 6th St. Hill; Maxwell Ave.; Louisiana Ave., Third St. to top on Fourth; Rose Alley; Dunn St.; Seventh St., railroad track to Carolina.

It is estimated that 232 tons of slag will be needed. Costs for loading, hauling, spreading and rolling slag chips will be $1,332. The cost of liquid asphalts with application will be $2,089. Estimated costs are based on slag usage of 232 tons and "weatherall" liquid asphalt usage of 9,180 gallons, Larry Pitts said. He is sales representative for the Ohio Tar and Asphalt Division of Central-Allied Enterprises, Inc.

COUNCILMAN Richard Johnston will represent Chester at meetings of the Hancock Community Action program. Mayor Harold Ash was invited to attend by Mrs. Flora Mae Allison, CAP representative working out of Weirton, but because of water board meetings the second Wednesday of each month he pointed out he will be unable to do so.

Don Hood city clerk, was instructed to write another letter to the Penn Central company relative to the condition of the bridges in Chester which cross railroad tracks and a storm sewer on 9th St. and Plutus Ave. which causes water to flood both the street, damaging the curb and street, and the parking lot at the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. An earlier letter concerning the bridges was written almost a month ago, Hood commented, but apparently has been ignored.

Ed Morse of T.S. & T. said a problem pertaining to soot from the plant is being corrected.

Robert Smoot of 1st St. attended the meeting and asked Council to add a vapor light to the lighting system planned. Council said it was unable to do so because of the working budget set up by the former Council.

It was pointed out that excavators are responsible for returning streets and surrounding areas to their former conditions after excavation is completed. A permit also must be purchased, Hood said.

Councilmen announced that residents who want work done in streets in their wards should contact their councilmen and not Street Commissioner Tom Bowen.

A LETTER was read from Charles Taylor of the National Church Supply Co., congratulating the group on the cleaner appearance of the community and the new, attractively-painted trash recepticles. The councilmen plan to meet with Taylor Thursday at 7 p.m. to hear a progress report on possible replacement of the Chester bridge.

Robert Wilson, who resigned as patrolman at the last meeting of Council, was asked to remain under bond as an extra policeman in case he is needed.

A former 12 - foot private drive was accepted as the city's responsibility.

Council, after hearing the delegation, and James Jordan, solicitor, accepted the right-of-way as it is shown on the deeds "to maintain it, excluding sidewalks, retaining walls, etc., Councilman William Tuttle outlined some of the details of the deeds concerning the right-of-way.

Plans for a family picnic for city officials and employes and their families were made during the meeting. The date and time will be announced. Councilman Charles Mansfield is in charge.

Bills totaled $1,947. Remittances received amounted to $349.

Council will meet Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in City Hall.

Parking

leaving the structure, no matter on what floor he has parked, must drive to the topmost level to get onto the ramp that leads to the street.

A passenger elevator carries motorists to the ground level after they have parked, "but no heat was designed for the shaft and as a result the elevator won't work in very cold weather," Sausser declared.

The pay of the structure's attendant eats into the profits, the former mayor said. "Sometimes he is on duty all day and does not take in $3 from parkers," the mayor said. The structure is manned about 12 hours a day, six days a week.

"But some people sneak in before the attendant comes on duty or after he has quit so that they can park for nothing," he asserted.

SAUSSER, admitting he never was sold on the idea of the elevated structure, said he believes the community would have been much better off to have invested the $500,000 in buying and razing a series of old buildings in the business district so that it could have provided street - level metered spots at scattered locations.

He said he believes it was unwise to concentrate all the parking facilities in one area of the downtown. In addition, he said, shoppers do not want to walk "two or three blocks" from the elevated structure to the center of the business area.

Monthly parking has been offered to business people at $2 a week in the elevated structure "but a lot of them don't want to take advantage of it," Sausser said. "Even the people who pushed for the parking garage won't use it," he said.

VANDALISM has been another factor in operation of the structure, the former mayor said. Thieves and vandals break into cars parked on the upper floors and sometimes young hoodlums damage the elevator and its controls so that it will not work, he said.

Maintenance costs have been higher than had been anticipated, the ex-mayor said, blaming the factor in part on the original construction.

He said suggestions have been made to eliminate the parking attendant, install meters on the upper floors and have the spaces policed by "Meter Maids." But this suggestion has not been followed through, he said.

Sausser declared that the parking structure has been "a political football" in the city since the day it first was proposed. Construction began in 1962 and was completed in 1963.

"I opposed it from the very start," Sausser said. "The parking garage issue was one reason why my predecessor was defeated soundly."

Court Orders Arrest For 2

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today ordered bench warrants for the arrest of two motorists who failed to appear for scheduled hearings.

The defendants are Ray A. Lambert of the Vista Motel, who also gave an address in Corinne, W. Va., accused of failure to stop in the assured clear distance, and John E. Porter of 2119 Chester Ave., Wellsville, charged with speeding in an Ohio Highway Patrol affidavit.

Lambert was cited in a minor traffic mishap on Market St. early today. The court ordered a $500 bond will be required for Lambert when he is taken into custody, declaring that the defendant "did not show any respect for the police department or this court" when he failed to appear. Lambert had been released on his own recognizance.

Porter was cited by the patrol Aug. 17 at 10:40 p.m. on Route 7 on a charge of driving 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone. He also had been released without a bond.

Meanwhile, Harold Gary Whitla, 22, of 425 Commerce St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs after the court convicted him on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on Route 7. Whitla was cited by the patrol Aug. 17 at 11:15 p.m. He pleaded not guilty at his arraignment last Thursday.

John Smith, 42, of MC 22, Lisbon St., was given a suspended $25 fine and told to pay the court costs on a charge of reckless driving. He was cited by Patrolman James Woods after his car hit a parked auto Monday night on Dresden Ave.

Two Bound Over

NEW CUMBERLAND — Kenneth Arthur Glendenning, 23, of East Liverpool and Roger Clyde Post, 21, of Lawrenceville were bound over to the next term of Hancock County grand jury following a hearing Monday before Squire John D. Herron.

Both men were charged with breaking and entering of the Lawrenceville American Legion on July 17, when $1,304 was taken.

They could not meet $3,000 bond and remain in Brooke County jail.

Meeting Airs Welfare Job For Hancock

Norman Ferrari reported meeting with Mrs. Josephine Alexander of the Department of Welfare in Charleston to discuss the need of a permanent welfare worker to be employed at the home when the Hancock County Children's Home Board met Monday.

He announced he plans to meet again with Mrs. Alexander and Miss Marry Jane Hess of Wheeling when Mrs. Alexander visits Wheeling.

Ferrari also reported on a meeting of the fair committee with Oliver Johnson, county extension agent. Ferrari presented an outline of the farm planning prepared by Johnson and also blueprints for several new farm buildings.

The farm committee plans to request a meeting with the county commissioners to discuss the work of the committee and to present the blueprints.

In other business, a letter was authorized to be sent to the Board of Education requesting that the children be exempt from the text book fee and also that they be provided hot lunches without charge.

The next meeting will be Sept. 30.

The other bidder for Central was William B. Mangano, who offered $12,500.

The Merchants Association of the East Liverpool Area Chamber of Commerce originally presented a proposal for acquisition of the land, but pointed out last night it no longer was interested in view of other developments.

A DISCUSSION also developed last night over the Glenmoor building. Ward said he felt that this is the only site in the Glenmoor area that could serve as a recreational and meeting place, such as the other three the city had purchased. McConville agreed.

"We need the money he said, but a playground is important." They both felt the Glenmoor United Presbyterian Church was trying to do in that area what the city was doing in the other areas. Ward commented, "We need the $10,000, but if we do get it, we will still need more.

The Capehart bid, however, was accepted by a 3-to-2 vote.

The church bid was for $500.

Blair explained that the $1,000 bid by David Starr Enterprises for Horace Mann was rejected because it had been indicated the building would be used for a warehouse, in contradiction to the city code.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Make 'State' Cookies

DEAR HELOISE: One day I rolled out my cookie dough, took a spatula and cut lines across it. I made diamonds, rectangles, squares of whatever came out and the edges lacy. I bake them just as they were.

Heloise

It is surprising how much fun this turned out to be because the kids played guessing games as to which U.S. state the cookies resembled.

Now it is a hard and fast rule that we make "state" cookies instead of the usual round ones.

KATHERINE H. STURTEVANT

DEAR HELOISE: By using clear adhesive-backed plastic, my family preserves everything from four-leaf clovers to swimming pool passes.

It is especially good for making darling placemats with an inner layer of Christmas cards, pressed flowers, or children's drawings.

MRS. M. MATHEWS.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE: You know the old saying — "Want it done faster? Ask a lazy man."

I think it should be changed to — "Want it done faster, easier and better? Ask a bachelor."

HAROLD TUCKER.

DEAR HELOISE: Those who have a problem when they are cleaning hard-to-get-to places might be helped by the idea I use when cleaning out my floor furnace, under the piano, sofa, etc.

I purchased a long, plastic tube the golfers use in golf bags, (about 30 cents) attached it to the end of the vacuum cleaner hose and does it work. The plastic flattens out and will get into those tight squeezes that the metal tube won't. Now I don't chip the paint like I sometimes used to do.

LAURIEL E. WOLFE.

You are right, Lauriel. The plastic golf tube is better and will last longer than the cardboard tube that was mentioned awhile back.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: My sister used their old metal wheelbarrow as a barbecue pit! She builds her fire in it and puts on old stainless steel grate from a stove over the top. Presto — a fine place to cook and when it gets too sunny or windy one place, she wheels it to a better location.

SMARTY'S SISTER.

That's a cute idea. And if you don't have an old grate from a stove, any iron grate will do.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: A child's toy potato masher makes the yolks just right for deviled eggs; is wonderful to mix peanut butter and jelly, fine for creaming butter and sugar, and cutting shortening into flour.

MOTHER OF FOUR.

DEAR HELOISE: I think that idea about a toothpick under the pan lid to let steam out of a pot is terrific . . . although I really had to take the teasing when my husband found one in his beef stew.

Nonetheless for all his kidding, I really thought he had a bright idea when . . . he placed one crosswise under the top of the teakettle to stop it from continually whistling when one wishes to keep it at the boil for adding to beans, or for use later.

Patrol Lists Area Wrecks

A Canfield driver was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon for failure to stop in an assured clear distance as the result of a two-car accident on Route 7, north of Route 267 Monday at 5:57 p.m.

Richard B. Waller, 65, of Turner Rd., Canfield, driving his 1963 coach south, said he was paying attention to a driver who had his auto pulled off the road. He failed to see that John Robert Raffa of 319 10th St., Wellsville, driving a 1964 coach, had slowed for traffic and his auto struck the rear of Raffa's vehicle. There was moderate damage to both cars.

Susan M. Golden, 25, of Dunn St. was cited Monday by the patrol as the result of an accident at 6:05 a.m. at the Y. & O. Rd. and Route 30.

Verna E. Black, 47, of the Y. & O. Rd., driving a 1968 sedan, halted at the stop sign behind another auto when the Dunn car failed to stop and struck the rear of the Black auto.

Earl D. Pittinger Jr., 21, of 617 Shorth St., Chester was driving his trailer north on Route 7, just north of the Rogers limits Friday morning, when Jerry Lee Sattler, 28, of New Waterford RD 1, operating a 1967 coach, attempted to pass and struck Pittenger's trailer.

Sattler was cited for failure to have assured clear distance.

The patrol also investigated a report that an unidentified vehicle damaged several mailboxes and posts on Route 267, a mile north of East Liverpool.

Robert E. Spears of 6th Ave., LaCroft, was pulling a camp trailer with his 1964 station wagon on the Y. & O. Rd., two miles south of Route 30 Sunday at 6:30 p.m., when the trailer started to fishtail and struck the station wagon. There was moderate damage to the right rear of the wagon.

A wheel came off a tractor-trailer and struck fence rails at a Roadside Park Sunday at 5:30 p.m. on Route 7, about four miles south of Rogers.

The patrol said Kenneth E. Wenzlick of Milwaukee was driving a 1967 tractor-trailer south on Route 7 when the right front outside rim and tire came off and the trailer went over the berm, through fence rails, struck a parking area post and continued on into a creek.

Prices Are Set For Cafeterias, Contracts Given

Lunch prices for the cafeterias were set at 35, 40 and 50 cents, bids were accepted on loose equipment and milk contracts for bread, milk, gasoline and oil were awarded by the Board of Education here Monday night.

Lunches at East, LaCroft and North Elementary will be served to students for 35 cents a day and to adults for 50 cents a day. High School students will pay 40 cents a day and adults at the high school building 50. Prices at Westgate also are 35 and 50 cents.

IN APPROVING the prices, it was pointed out that the cafeterias must, by state law, be self-supporting.

The contract for the audio learning system was awarded the Bratton Corp. of Columbus. Although a lower bid had been received earlier, the item was re-bid because the first did not meet the required specifications.

Electric mimeographs and spirit duplicators for the offices were purchased from the Borden Office Equipment Co. of Steubenville for $5,092.80. Again, a lower bid was received from Meek Stationery of East Palestine, but the specifications were not met it was explained.

The parking area at the Maine Blvd. complex will be blacktopped with a 2½-inch hot asphaltic concrete surface. The contract was awarded the Tri-State Asphalt Corp. at a cost of $10,306.

CHANGE orders were issued to take care of items that were not in the original specifications. A change order for $2,940 was issued to the Potters Construction Co. for the changes in the electronic area of the shop building and a change order for $1,368 for the mailboxes in the high school building. Officials pointed out that there are a total of approximately 100 boxes, 70 small ones and 30 larger ones.

Mailboxes were included in all of the buildings except the high school. They will be located in the office to the left of the entrance.

A purchase order for the Builders Wholesale Co. of East Liverpool for uniform storage racks, metal doors and grilles for the ROTC area for $1,725 and a change order to Potters Construction for $564 for installing partitions in Room 203 in connection with the ROTC program were approved, after a dissenting vote and lengthy discussion. Board Member Thomas Rodfong said he felt this was too high for the work and materials involved.

Golden Star Dairy of East Liverpool was awarded the contract to supply the cafeterias with milk for the school year at a price of 7 cents per half pint. It also will provide straws and cooling at no extra charge. The only other bid received was from Vernon Dell Dairy of East Liverpool RD 2, 7 cents per one half pint.

Several companies bid on bread and after much discussion the contract was awarded the Ward Baking Co. of Youngstown, last year's supplier.

OTHER bids received were from Schwebels of Youngstown, Keystone of West Bridgewater, Genest Bond of Wheeling and Nickles of Chester. The question was raised as to how many East Liverpool persons are employed by Nickles. It was pointed out, however, that Nickles supplied buns in bulk, and this resulted in smashed buns many times.

Figures in the accepted Ward bid were 15 cents for a 19-slice loaf of white bread, 23½ cents for one dozen 6-inch wiener buns and 24 cents for one dozen 4-inch sandwich buns.

Nickles bid 14 cents for an 18-slice loaf of bread and 24 cents per dozen on both buns. Genest Bond of Wheeling bid 13 cents on an 18-slice loaf of bread and 23½ cents on both buns. Other bids were higher. Supt. Paul Blair pointed out that Genest Bond did not list weights of the buns and since delivery was such a distance, they could not be sure of service, especially if an emergency arose.

Bids on gasoline and oil were received from the Standard Oil Co., Midway Oil Co. and Hays Oil Co. Standard Oil was awarded the contract at 0.1635 cents per gallon on their low bid and Hays received the contract for the oil at 0.85 cents per gallon, the low bid.

Harold Harris of the City Market asked the board about furnishing meat for the schools. Supt. Blair said he would have Mrs. Juarine Lee, the cafeteria coordinator, contact him. He said the meat always had been purchased after prices were checked, but said bids on meat were not received.

In other business, the board members were invited to participate in the football parade before the first game of the season.

Area Mishap Injures Four

A family of four was hospitalized as a result of a two-car collision Monday at 11:14 p.m. on the Waterford Park Rd. in Hancock County.

Mrs. Helen Becker, 38, of Bloomingdale, Ohio, and her three daughters remain in City Hospital.

Mrs. Becker is listed as "fair" with a laceration of the scalp, right arm, fractured left shoulder and a possible hip injury.

Two other daughters Carol, 8, and Terry, 12, are "satisfactory." Carol has contusions of the mouth and Terry contusions of the leg.

Mazzee, who was traveling east, told deputies he was going up a grade and saw lights coming on the wrong side of the road and was unable to avoid the crash.

No citation was issued.

Mrs. Becker's 1967 vehicle was demolished and damage to Mazzee's car was estimated at $200.

More Levies Entered In November Balloting

Two more subdivisions filed resolutions Monday with the County Election Board asking votes on tax levies at the November general election.

The Salem City School District asked a ballot place for renewal of a 2½-mill levy to provide funds for current expenses. It would run for "a continuing period of time" under a new state law that does not require a specific cut-off date for such a levy.

Leetonia village asked a vote on a new 2-mill levy that would run for five years, also to provide funds for current expenses.

Sidewalk Work Slated For Square In Lisbon

LISBON —Columbiana County commissioners and the county engineer will assist Lisbon Council in putting sidewalks beside parking meters on the inside of the three parks on the Square.

Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi obtained their approval of the plan last week and says the work is to be completed in time for the Johnny Appleseed Festival Sept. 19-21.

He said the commissioners cleared the legality of the expenditure through the prosecuting attorney. Approximately 750 feet of sidewalk will be installed.

BARONZZI said the narrow, diagonal head-in parking places will be widened by removing one meter at the narrow ends of the parks and two meters on the long sides.

Council heard Baronzzi report Monday night and went on record in appreciation of the county's cooperation.

In response to Baronzzi's recommendation, Council voted to remove the four parking meters on W. Lincoln Way (Route 30), along the north side of the Courthouse, and designate the spaces for the commissioners' use.

Clerk - Treasurer John Ebert said Guy Hurd, meter collector and maintenanceman, told him more meters will have to be ordered because five have been stolen recently, pipe standards and all. None has been located.

Baronzzi noted that 13 meters will be available as replacements when they are removed from the Square and the three parks.

COUNCILMAN Bill Robinson suggested a four - way stop at the intersection of E. Chestnut St. and Pritchards Ave.—the McKinley Elementary school corner. Council authorized Street Commissioner Thirl Flugan to order and install the four signs.

Reed McClure, consulting engineer, suggested that the board of education be requested to trim the shrubbery at the McKinley School corner because the foliage blocks the view west for southbound Pritchard Ave. traffic entering Chestnut St.

Clarence Trotter's request for a traffic light or four - way stop signs at W. Washington St. (Route 164) and S. Lincoln Ave. was referred to the street committee.

Mayor Clyde B. Pike also directed the street committee to consider proposals for getting rid of much of the speeding on E. Chestnut St. and East and West Washington St.

Peter Geiger of E. Chestnut St. asked Council to adopt a plan which Franklin Rudibaugh, also of E. Chestnut and a former councilman, made a year ago — that through traffic be kept off E. Chestnut by making it one way west from Nelson Alley to N. Market St. (Route 45) and by making Pritchard Ave. one - way south from E. Chestnut to E. Lincoln Way. Through traffic uses E. Chestnut to avoid stoplights at the Square and on E. Lincoln Way.

Councilman Charles Webber says much the same situation exists for Westbound through traffic using Washington St. to avoid the stoplights on E. and W. Lincoln Way.

COUNCIL opened firehose bids submitted by two concerns in accordance with fire department specifications.

The Warren Fire Equipment Co. bids for 600-pound test, 100 per cent dacron hose were $2.05 per foot for 2½-inch hose and $1.45 for 1½ inch.

Capt. A. J. Mannweiler & Sons, Inc., of Masillon bid $2.10 and $1.30 per foot, respectively.

Mayor Pike directed Council's fire committee to meet with Center and Elkrun Township trustees to determine how much hose they want to buy. The village and townships will pay one - third each.

Flugan reported there is raw sewage in a storm sewer at the intersection of High St. and Thomas Rd. Pike said this is a matter for the Board of Public Affairs. McClure said the board is under Ohio Department of Health orders to eliminate this condition whenever it exists.

Pike reported that six of the 10 youths working for the village under the Neighborhood Youth Corps program were discharged last week for failure to work. He said residents made numerous complaints about the boys. The youths were given due warning, he pointed out.

Three NYC workers are still on duty at the swimming pool park and one with the street commissioners. Flugan said he had no man available to supervise the boys and it was impossible for him to keep track of them himself.

South Side Board Hires School Head

The South Side Beaver Jointure Board of Directors Monday night hired Gary K. Butler of Ellwood City as elementary principal for the system.

Butler is a graduate of Geneva College and received a masters degree from Westminster College.

He served as head teacher at Highland Suburban School at Beaver Falls the past year.

The board accepted the resignation of Andrew W. Campbell, high school principal, effective Oct. 1. He has accepted a state position.

In other business, the board met with members of the Beaver County Board of Education to discuss future reorganization of the county district.

The next regular meeting will be next Tuesday night at 8.

Board Will Not Join Proposed Training School

The East Liverpool Board of Education Monday night decided not to participate in a proposed joint vocational high school for Columbiana County.

The decision was made relative to a request from County Supt. James McBride.

Supt. Paul Blair read the accompanying resolution, which, if passed, would have indicated East Liverpool's intent to participate. The board voted not to adopt the resolution.

Members said East Liverpool already has facilities that can serve the southern half of the county in vocational trainging and feel this would better serve the needs. Salem has facilities that can be utilized for the northern part, the board said, pointing out this would save construction of a new building and thereby save the taxpayers money.

Boy Wins Argument With Dad By A Hair

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — When Albert Rodgers received a rabbit as a pet, his father asked the 5-year-old boy what he planned to name it.

"Louis," said the youngster.

"But how do you know it's a boy," asked the father.

Lisbon Man Bound For Grand Jury

A Lisbon area man charged with assault with a dangerous weapon was bound to the Grand Jury after waiving a preliminary hearing Monday in Eastern Division County Court at East Palestine.

Jack Watson of Elkton Rd., Lisbon, was cited following an incident Aug. 18. The plaintiff is Willie Sturgeon of Rogers RD 1.

Watson is accused of assault with a baseball bat. His bond was set at $500.

Two charges were dismissed against Harold A. Dawson, 59, of Lisbon St. He had been charged with failure to stop after an accident and public intoxication. He was arrested by the State Highway Patrol at his home.

The complaining witness failed to appear and the court dismissed the charges. Dawson's trial had been postponed several times.

Thomas J. Wickey of Pine St., Lisbon, charged with malicious destruction of property was found not guilty. The charge was filed by Mrs. Fred Murphy Jr. of New Waterford who claimed $20 damage to the front yard of their home.

Laroe Chapman of 337 Ogden St. was fined $5 and costs for speeding and William E. Taylor of Lisbon RD 2 was fined $25 and costs for driving left of center.

Two Wellsville Men Injured In Collision

Wesley Wilson of 1732 Maple Ave., the driver, and Floyd Andrews of 1606 Buckeye Ave., a passenger, were treated at 7:20 p.m. at City Hospital for injuries received when their car and another collided.

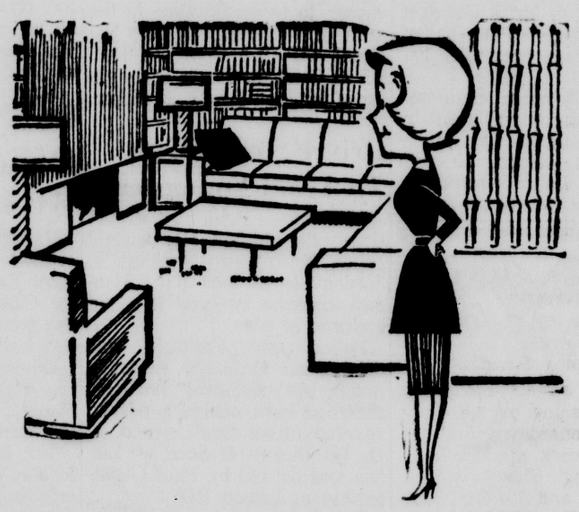

Wilson, who said another car pulled into his path, suffered contusions of the head, chest, right knee and left elbow.

Boy's Body Found Buried In Home; Father Is Jailed

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Mahoning County deputies Monday discovered the body of a 13-year-old boy entombed in the basement of his home 13 miles from here.

Deputies said the body of Martin Reakes of New Middleton was found after the boy's father, John C. Reakes walked into the Woodside Receiving Hospital and said he had killed his son.

Reakes, 40, told hospital authorities he had killed his son with a pickax and buried the body in the basement of his home.

Reakes was held in Mahoning County Jail. No charges were filed immediately.

Deputies said Reakes' three other children were watching television in the living room of the home when their brother's body was discovered.

Deputies estimated the boy had been killed about mid-day Monday.

They said Reakes told them he had had a blackout and could remember no details of the killing.

Coroner David Belinky said the boy had been strangled then hit over the head with the handle of a pickaxe.

Deputies said charges in the case would probably be preferred within 48 hours.

Patrol Lists Area Wrecks

A Canfield driver was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon for failure to stop in an assured clear distance as the result of a two-car accident on Route 7, north of Route 267 Monday at 5:57 p.m.

Richard B. Waller, 65, of Turner Rd., Canfield, driving his 1963 coach south, said he was paying attention to a driver who had his auto pulled off the road. He failed to see that John Robert Raffa of 319 10th St., Wellsville, driving a 1964 coach, had slowed for traffic and his auto struck the rear of Raffa's vehicle. There was moderate damage to both cars.

Susan M. Golden, 25, of Dunn St. was cited Monday by the patrol as the result of an accident at 6:05 a.m. at the Y. & O. Rd. and Route 30.

Verna E. Black, 47, of the Y. & O. Rd., driving a 1968 sedan, halted at the stop sign behind another auto when the Dunn car failed to stop and struck the rear of the Black auto.

Earl D. Pittinger Jr., 21, of 617 Shorth St., Chester was driving his trailer north on Route 7, just north of the Rogers limits Friday morning, when Jerry Lee Sattler, 28, of New Waterford RD 1, operating a 1967 coach, attempted to pass and struck Pittenger's trailer.

Sattler was cited for failure to have assured clear distance.

The patrol also investigated a report that an unidentified vehicle damaged several mailboxes and posts on Route 267, a mile north of East Liverpool.

Robert E. Spears of 6th Ave., LaCroft, was pulling a camp trailer with his 1964 station wagon on the Y. & O. Rd., two miles south of Route 30 Sunday at 6:30 p.m., when the trailer started to fishtail and struck the station wagon. There was moderate damage to the right rear of the wagon.

A wheel came off a tractor-trailer and struck fence rails at a Roadside Park Sunday at 5:30 p.m. on Route 7, about four miles south of Rogers.

The patrol said Kenneth E. Wenzlick of Milwaukee was driving a 1967 tractor-trailer south on Route 7 when the right front outside rim and tire came off and the trailer went over the berm, through fence rails, struck a parking area post and continued on into a creek.

Prices Are Set For Cafeterias, Contracts Given

Lunch prices for the cafeterias were set at 35, 40 and 50 cents, bids were accepted on loose equipment and milk contracts for bread, milk, gasoline and oil were awarded by the Board of Education here Monday night.

Lunches at East, LaCroft and North Elementary will be served to students for 35 cents a day and to adults for 50 cents a day. High School students will pay 40 cents a day and adults at the high school building 50. Prices at Westgate also are 35 and 50 cents.

IN APPROVING the prices, it was pointed out that the cafeterias must, by state law, be self-supporting.

The contract for the audio learning system was awarded the Bratton Corp. of Columbus. Although a lower bid had been received earlier, the item was re-bid because the first did not meet the required specifications.

Electric mimeographs and spirit duplicators for the offices were purchased from the Borden Office Equipment Co. of Steubenville for $5,092.80. Again, a lower bid was received from Meek Stationery of East Palestine, but the specifications were not met it was explained.

The parking area at the Maine Blvd. complex will be blacktopped with a 2½-inch hot asphaltic concrete surface. The contract was awarded the Tri-State Asphalt Corp. at a cost of $10,306.

CHANGE orders were issued to take care of items that were not in the original specifications. A change order for $2,940 was issued to the Potters Construction Co. for the changes in the electronic area of the shop building and a change order for $1,368 for the mailboxes in the high school building. Officials pointed out that there are a total of approximately 100 boxes, 70 small ones and 30 larger ones.

Mailboxes were included in all of the buildings except the high school. They will be located in the office to the left of the entrance.

A purchase order for the Builders Wholesale Co. of East Liverpool for uniform storage racks, metal doors and grilles for the ROTC area for $1,725 and a change order to Potters Construction for $554 for installing partitions in Room 203 in connection with the ROTC program were approved, after a dissenting vote and lengthy discussion. Board Member Thomas Rodfong said he felt this was too high for the work and materials involved.

Golden Star Dairy of East Liverpool was awarded the contract to supply the cafeterias with milk for the school year at a price of 7 cents per half pint. It also will provide straws and cooling at no extra charge. The only other bid received was from Vernon Dell Dairy of East Liverpool RD 2, 7 cents per one half pint.

Several companies bid on bread and after much discussion the contract was awarded the Ward Baking Co. of Youngstown, last year's supplier.

OTHER bids received were from Schwebels of Youngstown, Keystone of West Bridgewater, Genest Bond of Wheeling and Nickles of Chester. The question was raised as to how many East Liverpool persons are employed by Nickles. It was pointed out, however, that Nickles supplied buns in bulk, and this resulted in smashed buns many times.

Figures in the accepted Ward bid were 15 cents for a 19-slice loaf of white bread, 23½ cents for one dozen 6-inch wiener buns and 24 cents for one dozen 4-inch sandwich buns.

Nickles bid 14 cents for an 18-slice loaf of bread and 24 cents per dozen on both buns. Genest Bond of Wheeling bid 13 cents on an 18-slice loaf of bread and 23½ cents on both buns. Other bids were higher. Supt. Paul Blair pointed out that Genest Bond did not list weights of the buns and since delivery was such a distance, they could not be sure of service, especially if an emergency arose.

Bids on gasoline and oil were received from the Standard Oil Co., Midway Oil Co. and Hays Oil Co. Standard Oil was awarded the contract at 0.1635 cents per gallon on their low bid and Hays received the contract for the oil at 0.85 cents per gallon, the low bid.

Harold Harris of the City Market asked the board about furnishing meat for the schools. Supt. Blair said he would have Mrs. Juarine Lee, the cafeteria coordinator, contact him. He said the meat always had been purchased after prices were checked, but said bids on meat were not received.

In other business, the board members were invited to participate in the football parade before the first game of the season.

Two Wellsville Men Injured In Collision

Wesley Wilson of 1732 Maple Ave., the driver, and Floyd Andrews of 1606 Buckeye Ave., a passenger, were treated at 7:20 p.m. at City Hospital for injuries received when their car and another collided.

Wilson, who said another car pulled into his path, suffered contusions of the head, chest, right knee and left elbow.

Area Mishap Injures Four

A family of four was hospitalized as a result of a two-car collision Monday at 11:14 p.m. on the Waterford Park Rd. in Hancock County.

Mrs. Helen Becker, 38, of Bloomingdale, Ohio, and her three daughters remain in City Hospital.

Mrs. Becker is listed as "fair" with a laceration of the scalp, right arm, fractured left shoulder and a possible hip injury.

Two other daughters Carol, 8, and Terry, 12, are "satisfactory." Carol has contusions of the mouth and Terry contusions of the leg.

Mazzee, who was traveling east, told deputies he was going up a grade and saw lights coming on the wrong side of the road and was unable to avoid the crash.

No citation was issued.

Mrs. Becker's 1967 vehicle was demolished and damage to Mazzee's car was estimated at $200.

More Levies Entered In November Balloting

Two more subdivisions filed resolutions Monday with the County Election Board asking votes on tax levies at the November general election.

The Salem City School District asked a ballot place for renewal of a 2½-mill levy to provide funds for current expenses. It would run for "a continuing period of time" under a new state law that does not require a specific cut-off date for such a levy.

Leetonia village asked a vote on a new 2-mill levy that would run for five years, also to provide funds for current expenses.

Boy's Body Found Buried In Home; Father Is Jailed

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Mahoning County deputies Monday discovered the body of a 13-year-old boy entombed in the basement of his home 13 miles from here.

Deputies said the body of Martin Reakes of New Middleton was found after the boy's father, John C. Reakes walked into the Woodside Receiving Hospital and said he had killed his son.

Reakes, 40, told hospital authorities he had killed his son with a pickax and buried the body in the basement of his home.

Reakes was held in Mahoning County Jail. No charges were filed immediately.

Deputies said Reakes' three other children were watching television in the living room of the home when their brother's body was discovered.

Deputies estimated the boy had been killed about mid-day Monday.

They said Reakes told them he had had a blackout and could remember no details of the killing.

Coroner David Belinky said the boy had been strangled then hit over the head with the handle of a pickaxe.

Deputies said charges in the case would probably be preferred within 48 hours.

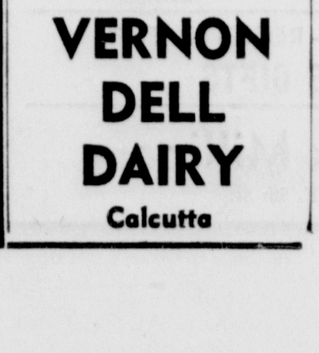

Country's 'In Hole' If Toothaches Strike

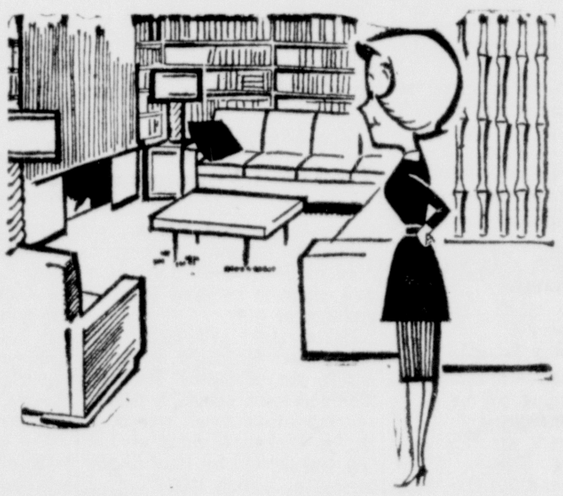

GABERONES, Botswana (AP)— Toothaches are a major problem in Botswana because there is no dentist for the country's 500,000-plus population.

Everybody from President Sir Seretse Khama on down has to leave the country for professional dental treatment. The president of black - ruled Botswana (formerly Bechuanaland) flies to white - ruled Rhodesia for dentistry.

State Recognition Given Members Of County's 4-H

LISBON — Peggy Zimmerman of Salem RD 3, Alan Gibson of Salem RD 2 and Mary Miller of Columbiana RD 2 have received state recognition for accomplishments in 4-H Club work.

Gordon McDonald, Columbiana County 4-H agent, said the state office selected Miss Zimmerman to attend the National 4-H Dairy Conference Dec. 5-7 in Chicago. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Zimmerman and a freshman at the Salem Branch of Kent State University.

Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gibson, was named a delegate to the National 4-H Conference next April 19-25 in Washington, D.C. He is a freshman at Ohio State University.

Driver Strikes Cars To Avoid Youngsters

LISBON — Paul Fatherly of Grant St., Lisbon RD 5, told police he hit two vehicles in Jordanville at 5:30 p.m. Monday when he swerved to avoid children at play.

Police said Fatherly was driving on Grant St. when a group of youngsters ran into the road from behind a parked concrete-mixer truck owned by D. W. Dickey & Sons of Lisbon and parked by Paul Chamberlain of Lisbon RD 3.

The front and rear of Fatherly's car were damaged when he hit the truck and a parked car owned by Geraldine Sweeney of 247 Pine St., police said. Fatherly was not cited.

Called To Farm

LISBON—Local firemen were called to the Kenneth Swogger farm on Township Line Rd. north of here at 7:36 a. m. today to extinguish a blaze in a manure pile next to the barn. A neighbor called the department when she saw smoke. The Swoggers were away.

Roxanne Green Marries In Ceremonies At Church

Gladioli and carnations formed the altar background for the wedding of Miss Roxanne Diane Green and John Edward Clutter Aug. 14 at 7 p.m.. in the First Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Green of Bradshaw Ave. and the late John V. Green. Her husband is the son of Charles E. Clutter of Newell and Mrs. Elva Barnett of East Liverpool.

A crown of daisies held her shoulder - length illusion veil. She carried a Colonial bouquet of carnations, stephanotis and daisies. The traditions were observed.

Mrs. Jean Byers, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She carried a Colonial bouquet of blue tipped carnations and white daisies.

Aides were Mrs. Ruth Knight and Mrs. Calvin Gillespie.

The bridegroom was graduated in 1963 from East Liverpool High School and is employed at the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Corp.

Girl From Hammondsville And Serviceman Are Wed

Miss Ellen Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackburn of Hammondsville, and Charles H. Potts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Potts of Wellsville, were united in marriage Aug. 10 at 6:30 p.m. at the Wellsville Revival Center.

Mrs. Crit Smallwood was organist and presented a vocal solo.

Her shoulder - length veil was fastened to a seed pearl floral designed tiara. She carried a colonial style bouquet centered with a white orchid. The traditions were observed.

Mrs. George Board Jr., aunt of the bride, served as matron of honor and Miss Elaine Buckel was her bridesmaid. Both wore street-length dresses of tafetta and lace — Mrs. Board's was pink and Miss Buckel's green. They wore small white veiled hats and carried colonial bouquets of yellow and white carnations. Each wore matching pearl necklaces and earrings, a gift of the bride.

Otto Potts, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Ted Blackburn, brother of the bride, served as usher.

A RECEPTION for 75 was held in the American Legion Post Home in Hammondsville. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Aides were Mrs. Jane Halfhill, Mrs. Dolores Tharpe and Martha Ingram.

Scouts Attack Weed Growth On 3 Streets

More than a dozen youths in a Boy Scout troop went to work this morning to eliminate unsightly weed growth along three of East Liverpool's main streets.

The youths, members of Troopp 12 at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, set off at the foot of St. Clair Ave., intending to cut or pull weeds and other growth proliferating around parking meters and utility poles and at the curb.

They are scheduled to do the same sort of job later on Broadway and Dresden Ave. The boys said they would work until noon today and tackle the job again later if it was not completed this morning.

Dale Thornton is the scoutmaster. The same troop recently cut weeds and other growth on the Ohio River bank near the Chester Bridge. The growth was cut near a pull-off point that the city established to allow motorists a view of the river.

The boys cut trees and other growth last year along the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." to allow travelers a better view of the valley and the river.

Approximately 15 to 18 were working on the weed project today. Mayor George E. Willshaw, advised of the boys' project, commented:

"The city owes a vote of thanks to these young men for their unselfish civic efforts. Their work will do a lot to improve the appearance of their community. If all our citizens had this same civic spirit, East Liverpool could quickly take on a bright, new face."

City Hospital Treats 12 In Emergencies

A Cleveland boy hurt in a fall at a playground was admitted to City Hispital Monday, where 11 others were treated.

Treated were Denver Sprout of 409 Washington St., a right hand injury on a wall at home; Dean Lockhart, son of Charles Lockhart of 956 W. 8th St., a laceration of the nose in a fall at home.

David Ambrose, son of Frank Ambrose of Georgetown RD 1, a laceration of the forehead in a fall from a truck; Ezra Westfall, son of Lawrence Westfall of 1799½ Arthur St., Wellsville, a laceration of the chin in a fall at home.

The Social Notebook

The 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bucher of 818 Bradshaw Ave. was celebrated Friday evening at the Chester American Legion home, with their daughters, Eyvette Bucher and Mrs. Colleen Maithes, hostesses. There were 107 present.

Mrs. Bucher was presented an orchid corsage by her husband, who is president of East Liverpool City Council and is a foreman at the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Corp.

They were married at the former First Presbyterian Church, now the Trinity UP Church, by the Rev. John W. Meister of the Steubenville Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Ruth Davis registered the guests. The gift table was covered with a linen-lace cloth and the buffet table was centered with a cake, flanked with a white and silver floral arrangement. White tapers and silver candelabra completed the setting.

Mrs. Ralph Maithes assisted the hostesses in serving.

State Recognition Given Members Of County's 4-H

LISBON — Peggy Zimmerman of Salem RD 3, Alan Gibson of Salem RD 2 and Mary Miller of Columbiana RD 2 have received state recognition for accomplishments in 4-H Club work.

Gordon McDonald, Columbiana County 4-H agent, said the state office selected Miss Zimmerman to attend the National 4-H Dairy Conference Dec. 5-7 in Chicago. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Zimmerman and a freshman at the Salem Branch of Kent State University.

Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gibson, was named a delegate to the National 4-H Conference next April 19-25 in Washington, D.C. He is a freshman at Ohio State University.

Driver Strikes Cars To Avoid Youngsters

LISBON — Paul Fatherly of Grant St., Lisbon RD 5, told police he hit two vehicles in Jordanville at 5:30 p.m. Monday when he swerved to avoid children at play.

Police said Fatherly was driving on Grant St. when a group of youngsters ran into the road from behind a parked concrete-mixer truck owned by D. W. Dickey & Sons of Lisbon and parked by Paul Chamberlain of Lisbon RD 3.

The front and rear of Fatherly's car were damaged when he hit the truck and a parked car owned by Geraldine Sweeney of 247 Pine St., police said. Fatherly was not cited.

Called To Farm

LISBON—Local firemen were called to the Kenneth Swogger farm on Township Line Rd. north of here at 7:36 a. m. today to extinguish a blaze in a manure pile next to the barn. A neighbor called the department when she saw smoke. The Swoggers were away.

Women have the ability to taste things better than men, according to one recent study. However, there still are three things the men's taste buds detect more quickly than a women's — vinegar, lemon and sour grapes.

Scouts Attack Weed Growth On 3 Streets

More than a dozen youths in a Boy Scout troop went to work this morning to eliminate unsightly weed growth along three of East Liverpool's main streets.

The youths, members of Troopp 12 at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, set off at the foot of St. Clair Ave., intending to cut or pull weeds and other growth proliferating around parking meters and utility poles and at the curb.

They are scheduled to do the same sort of job later on Broadway and Dresden Ave. The boys said they would work until noon today and tackle the job again later if it was not completed this morning.

Dale Thornton is the scoutmaster. The same troop recently cut weeds and other growth on the Ohio River bank near the Chester Bridge. The growth was cut near a pull-off point that the city established to allow motorists a view of the river.

The boys cut trees and other growth last year along the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd." to allow travelers a better view of the valley and the river.

Approximately 15 to 18 were working on the weed project today. Mayor George E. Willshaw, advised of the boys' project, commented:

"The city owes a vote of thanks to these young men for their unselfish civic efforts. Their work will do a lot to improve the appearance of their community. If all our citizens had this same civic spirit, East Liverpool could quickly take on a bright, new face."

Prisoners In Dough Under Bakery Setup

NEW YORK (AP) — Prisoners on Rikers Island bake five million pounds of bread products a year, the city's chief warden reports.

George McGrath, commissioner of the Correction Department, has 105 inmates working with 10 civilian bakers in the island's two - year - old $2.5-million automated bakery. They bake bread, buns, pies and gingerbread for the department's 10,000 inmates and 3,100 civil servants and for the Parks Department and the school lunch program.

Under the inmate wage incentive program, the prisoners are paid 3, 6 or 10 cents an hour, depending on their skills. McGrath said ex-convicts trained in the bakery are welcomed by baking companies because they know how to operate the most modern baking equipment.

One Drawback

NEW DELHI (AP)—East Germany is willing to sign a long-term trade pact with India lasting until 1960, Heinrich Meier, deputy chairman of the East German state planning commission, told a news conference. But the establishment of normal diplomatic relations between the two countries is an essential prerequisite, he added. India has relations only with West Germany.

4 Persons Suffer Injuries In 5 Hancock Auto Mishaps

Four persons were injured in a rash of five traffic accidents investigated by the Hancock County sheriff's office over the weekend.

Only one of the four injured was hospitalized. Mrs. Mildred McIntosh, 36, of 317 2nd St., Wellsville is in "satisfactory" condition at Osteopathic Hospital with back injuries suffered in a two-car collision Saturday at 4:33 p.m. on Route 2 a mile south of Chester.

Deputies said Dale McIntosh, 43, had stopped to make a left turn into a market when his car was struck from behind by a vehicle driven by Bobbie Joe Walls, 18, of 819 Jefferson St., Newell. Walls, who claimed McIntosh did not have his turn signals on, was cited for failure to have his vehicle under control.

McIntosh also suffered back injuries, but said he would see his own physician.

A horse caused an accident which demolished a 1960 vehicle Sunday at 4:50 a.m. near the Nessley Chapel on Route 2.

Rexall Kelly, 29, of Warren, Ohio, and his passenger were treated at City Hospital. Kelly received multiple superficial lacerations of the arms, legs, hands and face and Marilyn Miller of Niles was treated for multiple superficial lacerations and lacerations of the right shoulder.

Kelly told deputies one horse crossed the road in front of his car, then another horse hit the side of his car and bounced onto the roof. The impact caused him to lose control and go over an embankment. The horse, owned by John Day of Arroyo, was killed.

Ten minutes later at almost the same place, Thomas W. Butler, 22, of Rural Ln., East Liverpool, went off the roadway causing $150 damage to his 1962 vehicle, but he escaped injury, deputies said.

At 6:53 p.m. Saturday, Robert Hobbs 28, of East Liverpool was charged with hazardous driving after he collided with another car 500 feet north of the Newell Bridge on Route 2. The investigation is incomplete, the sheriff's office said.

Two cars were demolished in a head-on collision at a one lane bridge on the Middlerun Rd. Sunday at 2:55 p.m.

Cars driven by Thomas Coleman, 24, of Middlerun Rd. and Orville Leisure, 30, of Chester, RD 1 met head-on near the bridge. Both drivers stated they did not see each other as they approached the bridge and were unable to avoid the collision. No one was injured but Coleman was cited for not having an operator's license or a license plate.

Williams said while riding his motorcycle in Tomlinson Run Park he hit gravel on a turn and the cycle flipped over a hill.

Various Exhibits Announced For New Cumberland's Fair

NEW CUMBERLAND— Events and exhibits to be featured during the Lions Club free fair here were announced today by Squire John D. Herron, general chairman.

Six amusement rides for young and old will be offered, together with the usual midway attractions of baseball throw, basketball, darts and ring the duck, Herron said.

A flower display, clothing exhibit and 4-H booth will demonstrate the talent of local residents. Refreshments will be available from concessions operated by community organizations.

No admission is charged to the fair.

Herron, who is directing the event for the fourth time, said this year's fair is likely "to be the best ever."

Each year the local Lions Club presents the fair "to discourage distant travel for diversion on the dangerous Labor Day weekend." Gerald Jones is president of the local club.

Proceeds from prior fairs have been used to improve the grounds and for general community projects of the club.

The eighth annual event will open Thursday evening and extend through the Labor Day weekend. The fairgrounds will be closed on Sunday.

Prisoners In Dough Under Bakery Setup

NEW YORK (AP) — Prisoners on Rikers Island bake five million pounds of bread products a year, the city's chief warden reports.

George McGrath, commissioner of the Correction Department, has 105 inmates working with 10 civilian bakers in the island's two - year - old $2.5-million automated bakery. They bake bread, buns, pies and gingerbread for the department's 10,000 inmates and 3,100 civil servants and for the Parks Department and the school lunch program.

Under the inmate wage incentive program, the prisoners are paid 3, 6 or 10 cents an hour, depending on their skills. McGrath said ex-convicts trained in the bakery are welcomed by baking companies because they know how to operate the most modern baking equipment.

One Drawback

NEW DELHI (AP)—East Germany is willing to sign a long-term trade pact with India lasting until 1960, Heinrich Meier, deputy chairman of the East German state planning commission, told a news conference. 4 Persons Suffer Injuries In 5 Hancock Auto Mishaps

Four persons were injured in a rash of five traffic accidents investigated by the Hancock County sheriff's office over the weekend.

Only one of the four injured was hospitalized. Mrs. Mildred McIntosh, 36, of 317 2nd St., Wellsville is in "satisfactory" condition at Osteopathic Hospital with back injuries suffered in a two-car collision Saturday at 4:33 p.m. on Route 2 a mile south of Chester.

Deputies said Dale McIntosh, 43, had stopped to make a left turn into a market when his car was struck from behind by a vehicle driven by Bobbie Joe Walls, 18, of 819 Jefferson St., Newell. Walls, who claimed McIntosh did not have his turn signals on, was cited for failure to have his vehicle under control.

McIntosh also suffered back injuries, but said he would see his own physician.

A horse caused an accident which demolished a 1960 vehicle Sunday at 4:50 a.m. near the Nessley Chapel on Route 2.

Rexall Kelly, 29, of Warren, Ohio, and his passenger were treated at City Hospital. Kelly received multiple superficial lacerations of the arms, legs, hands and face and Marilyn Miller of Niles was treated for multiple superficial lacerations and lacerations of the right shoulder.

Kelly told deputies one horse crossed the road in front of his car, then another horse hit the side of his car and bounced onto the roof. The impact caused him to lose control and go over an embankment. The horse, owned by John Day of Arroyo, was killed.

Ten minutes later at almost the same place, Thomas W. Butler, 22, of Rural Ln., East Liverpool, went off the roadway causing $150 damage to his 1962 vehicle, but he escaped injury, deputies said.

At 6:53 p.m. Saturday, Robert Hobbs 28, of East Liverpool was charged with hazardous driving after he collided with another car 500 feet north of the Newell Bridge on Route 2. The investigation is incomplete, the sheriff's office said.

Two cars were demolished in a head-on collision at a one lane bridge on the Middlerun Rd. Sunday at 2:55 p.m.

Cars driven by Thomas Coleman, 24, of Middlerun Rd. and Orville Leisure, 30, of Chester, RD 1 met head-on near the bridge. Both drivers stated they did not see each other as they approached the bridge and were unable to avoid the collision. No one was injured but Coleman was cited for not having an operator's license or a license plate.

Williams said while riding his motorcycle in Tomlinson Run Park he hit gravel on a turn and the cycle flipped over a hill.

ANN LANDERS

'Lay That Pistol Down!'

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Since guns are a popular topic of conversation these days this letter won't sound quite so foolish as it might have six months ago.

My sister-in-law, Agatha, always has been a kook but I was able to overlook her crazy ways until three weeks ago.

Agatha came over with her boy friend, Randy, and in the middle of a sociable conversation she pulled a pistol out of her purse and aimed it at me. At first I thought it was a toy. I told her to stop kidding around.

She said, "This is no toy, it's the real thing" — and sure enough it was.

Randy told her to cut the clowning and he presed her hand to the floor to make her drop the pistol. It went off and now I have a big hole in my rug. I nearly fainted in the bargain.

I don't want that nut coming over here any more with loaded pistols but I'm afraid to say anything. She says she got a permit to carry a gun when someone tried to grab her purse two years ago and now she carries it with her at all times. What can I do?—S.O.S.

Dear S.O.S.: Tell nutty Agatha if she wants to visit your home she'll have to check her pistol at the door. In the meantime ask the police to find out if she has a gun permit. If she hasn't you will have done your duty and taken one potentially dangerous gun out of circulation. Then there'll be only 4,999,999 to go.

If you want to do something about the thousands of other dingbats who are running loose with guns write two letters today — one to each of your U.S. senators.

And please, friends, I don't need any more letters telling me guns don't kill people — people kill people. Atomic bombs don't kill people either. It's the people who drop them that I worry about.

Dear Ann: I can't get that letter out of my mind — the one from the overweight 16-year-old who was embarrassed by her mother when they went shopping together. It seems her mother kept making hurtful remarks about her size.

May I present another side of the same story?

When I married two years ago I acquired a 13-year-old stepdaughter who weighed 180 pounds. Lord knows I tried everything under the sun to get her on a diet, but no luck. If shopping was painful to her, let me assure you it was agony for me. A size 10 stepmother who tries to outfit a baby elephant can have a very rough time.

When she became angry because the saleswoman kept bringing in matronly styles instead of cute girlish things, I could scarcely tell her they don't make teen-age styles in size 44. Finally I had to say, "Honey, I'll love you no matter how large you are, but please shop by yourself."

Get the picture, Ann? I hope so. I'm tired of being called a witch. — CONNECTICU.

Dear Conn.: Yes, I get the picture and it's not very pretty. Have you presented the picture to someone who can help this unfortunate girl with her problem? I hope so.

Ann Landers will be glad to Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DAVID WILHELM

County Youth, 18, Will Be Honored In Fair Position

LISBON — David Wilhelm, 18 of Salem RD 3 will be introduced as a new member of the Ohio State Junior Fair Board Saturday at Columbus.

He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilhelm, will be guests of the state fair board at a recognition tea for new appointees.

The state 4-H office named Ed and Karen Miller of New Knoxville (Auglaize County) as 4-H representatives on the junior division board for the 1969 and 1970 fairs. Sixteen other youth organizations participating in the state fair have representatives on the board. The junior board is in session for a week prior to the fair and all during the exposition.

Ed, a graduate of Leetonia High School, is a freshman at Youngstown State University. He plans to major in engineering. He is working this summer in the Columbiana County engineer's office.

Cancer Fatal To Liver Transplant Patient, 2

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Julie Cherie Rodriguez, who lived with a transplanted liver longer than anyone known to science, died of cancer Monday evening at the University of Colorado Medical Center.

"It was a blessing," said her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rodriguez of Pueblo, Colo. "She had suffered so much, I'm glad God came and picked her up," said her father.

At 2, the pretty, wide-eyed little girl was too young to know that by surviving more than 13 months after the transplant she offered hope to uncounted victims of otherwise terminal liver ailments.

Julie's new liver had functioned well since it was implanted on July 23, 1967. The donor was a child who had died of causes that left the liver undamaged.

But cancer, which destroyed Julie's own liver by the time she was a year old, appeared elsewhere in her body. Several additional operations failed to curb it, and several weeks ago, just before the first anniversary of the transplant, the parents learned there was no hope.

"We're not bitter or sorry that we went through it," said Rodriguez. "We're grateful we had this chance to keep Julie a little longer and with what doctors have learned, help humanity a little."

"God sent her to us for a purpose and she fulfilled it," said her mother.

There were no known survivors of liver transplant operations when Julie—affectionately called "Ju Ju"—underwent the surgery.

Thirteen have been performed here since Julie's, and five of these patients still live. Doctors say improved methods of storing donor livers until they can be implanted, and better techniques of suppressing the body's tendency to reject the new organ have contributed to the improved outlook.

Jury Due Case Wednesday

Final Arguments Slated In Barron Bribery Trial

CHARLESTON (AP) — Arguments by the defense and prosecution and instructions to the jury were to begin at 10 a.m. in U.S. District Court today in the bribery conspiracy trial of former Gov. W. W. Barron and four others.

Special Federal Judge J. Robert Martin has allocated each side up to five hours for arguments to the jury, with the case expected to go to the jury Wednesday. The trial began Aug. 12.

BUT JUDGE Martin overruled the motions for the second time in the day's proceedings without hearing arguments concerning the four other defendants — former State Road Commissioner Burl A. Sawyers, former Deputy Road Commissioner Vincent J. Johnkoski, Elkins attorney Bonn Brown and Clarksburg auto dealer Alfred W. Schroath.

Martin called for arguments on the acquittal motion as to Barron, but later overruled that one also.

The indictment, returned by a grand jury last Feb. 14, charged the five defendants with conspiring to use interstate facilities in an alleged scheme of bribery to obtain state government business.

Former State Finance Commissioner Truman E. Gore was also indicted, but his case was declared a mistrial because his attorney became ill.

THE INDICTMENT alleged the defendants shared equally in four "receiving corporations" established in Florida and Ohio and that payoffs from firms seeking state contracts were funneled through these corporations.

Before it was learned there would be no defense testimony, Martin quashed subpoenas for Gov. Hulett C. Smith and Asst. State Purrhasing Director Fred Merchant to appear as defense witnesses.

Martin said their testimony was not relevant to the charges in the indictment and he did not want the case involved in any collateral matters.

The move to subpoena Smith and Merchant resulted from testimony by government witness Charleston businessman Isadore Lashinsky, who testified that he had made two $5,000 contributions to Smith's gubernatorial campaign and that Merchant had received a commission on state business going to Lashinsky's company, Southern Culvert Corp.

Jury Indicts 5 In Slaying Of 3 Officers, Negro

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cuyahoga County Grand Jury indicted Fred "Ahmed" Evans, militant black nationalist leader, and four Negro teen-agers Monday on seven counts each of first-degree murder in the slaying of three white policemen and a Negro civilian last month.

The slayings occurred during a sniper attack on the night of July 23 in the Glenville area on the East Side. Six other Negro civilians, including three of the snipers, were slain in the gunfire that followed.

The grand jury charged Evans 37-year-old astrologer and former Army sergeant, with 20 counts in five indictments. In addition to the murder charges, he was indicted on counts of shooting to wound or kill, possession of a machine gun and possession of narcotics.

Charles R. Laurie, assistant county prosecutor who presented the evidence to the grand jury, said the first of the five defendants may go on trial in the fall.

Princess Marina Dies At Age 61

LONDON (AP) — Princess Marina, the dowager Duchess of Kent and the glamor girl of European royalty before World War II, died today. She was 61.

Marina's three children— the second duke, Princess Alexandra and Prince Michael—were at her bedside when she died, the announcement said.

The daughter of the late Prince Nicholas of Greece and Denmark, Marina was married in 1934 to the fourth and youngest son of King George V. They were among the most decorative members of international society in the 1930s, and the duchess was noted for her beauty, style and charm.

The duke was killed in a plane crash in 1942, while serving with the Royal Air Force. He and Marina had been married only eight years, and their third child was only seven months old.

The young widow lived in comparative seclusion for some years after the war, but in the 1950s after her niece Elizabeth II became queen, she became a widely traveled royal representative and pursued a heavy schedule of formal appearances in Britain.

Crucible Official Given Promotion

PITTSBURGH — Fred W. Replogle has been promoted to manager of financial administration at the Crucible Steel Corp.

Replogle is now responsible for the corporate coordination of financial analysis and business planning. He succeeds Sol M. Kershner, who recently was named vice president and controller at the company's Midland Division.

Prior to joining Crucible last May, Replogle was controller of Eazor Express in Pittsburgh. Previously he had been treasurer and secretary of the Sterling Seal Co. For the 12 years following his graduation from Indiana University, he held management positions with Lybrand, Ross Brothers and Montgomery in New York and Pittsburgh.

Turkey Rushes Riot Police To Nip Anti-U.S. Violence

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) The Turkish government, fearing further anti-American violence against U.S. sailors, sent extra riot police to Izmir today for the arrival of more visiting U.S. Navy ships.

Led by the cruiser Little Rock, a task force from the U.S. 6th Fleet was to spend 13 days in the Aegean seaport.

Some pro-American Turks expressed misgivings about the visit at a time of continuing controversy over the 30,000 U.S. servicemen stationed in Turkey.

During the "good-will" visit of another 6th Fleet task force to Istanbul last month, club-wielding, rock-throwing students injured about 20 American sailors and there were demonstrations protesting the visit in other cities. At least one student was killed and scores injured.

Despite expressions of misgiving about another fleet visit, Premier Suleyman Demirel said his pro-American government "will not be intimidated." He called the controversy a "tempest in a teapot" and ordered the undersecretary of the interior to coordinate security measures during the visit.

Anti-Americanism has been building in Turkey for some years, spurred by resentment at the considerably higher standard of living which American servicemen and their families enjoy.

There has also been resentment that the U.S. government did not take a strong stand on behalf of Turkey in its dispute with Greece over Cyprus.

Relations between Turkey and the Soviet Union have improved in recent years, and the Turks don't feel American protection is needed so much any more.

ANN LANDERS

'Lay That Pistol Down!'

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: Since guns are a popular topic of conversation these days this letter won't sound quite so foolish as it might have six months ago.

My sister-in-law, Agatha, always has been a kook but I was able to overlook her crazy ways until three weeks ago.

Agatha came over with her boy friend, Randy, and in the middle of a sociable conversation she pulled a pistol out of her purse and aimed it at me. At first I thought it was a toy. I told her to stop kidding around.

She said, "This is no toy, it's the real thing" — and sure enough it was.

Randy told her to cut the clowning and he presed her hand to the floor to make her drop the pistol. It went off and now I have a big hole in my rug. I nearly fainted in the bargain.

I don't want that nut coming over here any more with loaded pistols but I'm afraid to say anything. She says she got a permit to carry a gun when someone tried to grab her purse two years ago and now she carries it with her at all times. What can I do?—S.O.S.

Dear S.O.S.: Tell nutty Agatha if she wants to visit your home she'll have to check her pistol at the door. In the meantime ask the police to find out if she has a gun permit. PHILADELPHIA (AP) — William R. Welch, who qualified for Social Security at the age of 90, celebrated his 107th birthday Monday.

A party was staged by student nurses at Philadelphia General Hospital where Welch is a patient.

He retired before the Social Security law was enacted. At the age of 90, however, he got a job as a hotel clerk and qualified.

Burglars Fail Again As Alarm Goes Off

A third attempt to burglarize the Gaylord Department Store on Route 18, Big Beaver Borough, was foiled Monday when the alarm system was touched off.

Pennsylvania state police at the Chippewa Barracks reported that entry to the store was gained by cutting a hole in the roof of the building. The alarm was activated at 1 a.m.

The Big Beaver Borough Police are assisting in the investigation.

Ohio's Crime Rate Up 31% During 1967

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI announced today that major crime in Ohio increased nearly 31 per cent last year over the 1966 figures — almost twice the national increase.

The report shows that 157,486 persons in Ohio were victims of major crimes in 1967, compared to 120,648 in 1966. The national figure or 1967 was 3,802,273, an increase of 16.5 per cent over 1966.

The FBI said 1,506 of every 100,000 persons in the state fell victim to murder, rape, robbery, assault, burglary, larceny or auto theft in 1967.

Murder and non-negligent manslaughter, 545-462; forcible rape, 1,073-963; robbery, 9,934-7,261; aggravated assault, 7,792-6,985; burglary, 63,540-50,167; larceny ($50 and over) 40,546-30, 188; auto theft, 34,056,267.

The FBI listed 11 metropolitan areas in Ohio which included cities and surrounding areas: Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Lima, Lorain-Elyria, Mansfield, Steubenville-Weirton (W. Va.), Toledo and Youngstown-Warren. Canton was not listed separately.

Of these areas Cleveland had the highest number of reported crimes in 1967 — 39,446 — but Columbus had the highest crime rate — 2,234 per 100,000 population.

Here are the major areas listed in the report which the total number of major crimes committed in each in 1967 and (bracketed) the crime rate per 100,000 persons, as calculated by the FBI:

Akron, 14, 422 (2,173); Cincinnati, 18,944 (1,372); Cleveland, 39,441 (1,914); Columbus, 19,333 (2,234); Dayton, 13,901 (1,708); Lima, 2,119 (1,264); Lorain-Elyria, 3,032 (1,187); Mansfield, 1,839 (1,409); Steubenville-Weirton, 1,466 (875); Toledo, 12,754 (1,902) and Youngstown-Warren, 7,412 (1,370).

On the average a new phone going into service won't need any attention for five and a half years. And a lot of them never need it.

But best of all, when a telephone we've installed needs repairs, there's no extra charge. It's all paid for by the local telephone rate. A rate that hasn't changed since 1959. Long distance rates have been reduced eight times during that period.

With everything else going up, it hasn't been easy holding the line on costs. But we keep trying. Maybe we can stretch it out to six or seven years before a repairman is needed. We hope you won't miss him.

Last year four million children under 5 were treated for ACCIDENTAL POISONING!

All Tablet and Capsule Prescriptions are Filled with Palm n' Turn "Safety Cap" vials at ALL PEOPLES Service DRUG STORES!

Extensive tests show that few children under age 5 could have performed the two motions, palming and turning, necessary to open this new safety container .
All drugs should be locked out of children's reach, but accidents happen. If just a few children can be spared the agony of child-poisoning as a result of this new container, Peoples will be grateful.

1. All prescriptions must be filled exactly as written by your physician. This is strictly regulated by Federal and State laws and insures the patient receiving precisely what his physician orders.

2. Prescription prices vary from drug store to drug store as much as 15% to 75% higher, depending on where you have them filled. Some drug stores, buying smaller quantities pay more for their drugs and so must charge more for prescriptions.

3. All Peoples Drug Stores fill more than 8 million prescriptions a year and buy in tremendous quantities from Amerca's leading pharmaceutical manufacturers.

4. Peoples low discount prices on prescriptions are made possible by savings on larger purchases and economies in warehousing and distribution.

5. One hundred million prescriptions have been filled by all Peoples Drug Stores since we opened our doors in 1905. Count the prescriptions and you've got the number of times people have counted on Peoples with confidence. DEFENDERS DIG IN. East Liverpool defensive tackles Don Cochran (left) and Stanley Ice hit the blocking machine, with middle guard Jim (Moose) Jones in the middle. Standing at left are defensive ends Jerry Christian and Jack Melvin (89) and at right are defensive ends Steve Douglas (82) and Jim Musuraca (45).

Nine Lettermen Returning

Despite only nine returning lettermen, East Liverpool High football coach Bob McNea is optimistic about the 1968 season.

"Returning lettermen don't mean a thing", McNea says. "Some people give out more letters than others. This team is comparable to last year's squad, and the defense is as good as any team here the last several years."

McNea admits that the center of the offensive line will lack experience. But, he says "we're pointing for a 10-0 season, as we do every year." The Potter coach wouldn't single out any particularly tough opponent, but he said he didn't think he'd have any trouble getting the team "up" for Warren Western Reserve, the only team to beat East Liverpool in 1967.

TO BALANCE the lack of lettermen, McNea notes that there is an outstanding crop of sophomores, though none is expected to start right away.

Dan Cunningham, 5-9, 150, a senior letterman, is the probable starting quarterback, though John Johnson, 6-2, 170, another senior lettermen, is giving him a battle. "Johnson is our best end, so he may end up there", McNea says. Johnson lettered as an end last season. Ralph Seevers, 5-10, 170, a sophomore, is regarded as a fine quarterbacking prospect.

Senior letterman Jim Musuraca 6-0, 190, will be the fullback, backed by senior Herb Purton, 5-10, 170. Starting halfbacks in early drills are senior lettermen Tom Chambers, 5-10, 170, and Nelson (Sonny) Clark, 6-0, 160. Clark lettered as a defensive back a year ago. Senior Floyd (Bub) Cranston, 5-11, 170, and Steve Williams, a speedy sophomore up from East Junior, are reserve halfbacks, with sophomore Joe March, 6-0, 150, tabbed as an excellent receiver, slated for duty at halfback or split end.

LETTERMAN senior Jerry Christian, 6-4, 195, is the probable starter at tight end, but he may play split end at times with junior Jack Melvin, 6-0, 175, manning the right end spot. Junior Jim (El) Parson, 5-7, 130, is a leading split end candidate, with another outstanding sophomore, Jim Moore, 6-1, 180, pegged for duty there also.

Starting offensive tackles will be lettermen seniors Don Cochran, 6-1, 205, and Stanley Ice, 6-1, 225. Juniors Jimmy (Moose) Jones, 6-1, 215, and Paul Barbuto, 6-1, 220, will back them.

Lou Volino, 5-10, 175, is the only letterman in the center of the offensive line. Volino, a guard, was the only sophomore to letter on last year's team. Other guard candidates are Junior Frank Butler, 5-11, 175, Rick Shawke, 5-8, 175, a senior who spent last year in Missouri, and juniors Rick Shultz, 5-9, 180, and Dave Banfield, 5-10, 170. Senior Denny Brennan, 6-1, 180, is the number one center candidate, backed by junior John Haney, 5-11, 175.

McNEA says the Potters will use basically a straight T formation, with flankers sometimes, but Potter fans know that East Liverpool will use any formation in football history, if the situation demands it.

The five-man defensive line will probably see Musuraca and Melvin at ends, backed by Christian, Butler and Steve Douglas, a 6-0, 170 senior; Cochran and Ice at tackles, backed by Barbuto and Keith Burke, a 5-11, 215 senior; and Jones at middle guard, backed by Cranston and Sam Natalina, a 5-7, 150 senior.

Johnson, Clark, Bob Pugh, a 5-10, 150 senior and Chambers figure to form the starting defensive backfield, with Seevers, Rick Echols, a 5-6, 135 senior, Tom Gooding, a 5-10, 140 senior, and junior Don Mack in reserve. Mack is also the team's place kicker.

Other sophomores are halfback Bob Bosco, end Don Cain, halfback Bob Crisplip, guard Dennis Fitzgerald, guard Jerry Fletcher, guard Ed Hauldron, Fred Henderson, center Terry Hoyt, end John Lyons, fullback Jeff Martin, center Mike Purton, Clete Payne and end Gary Regdon.

McNea will be asisted by Frank Moss, Paul Hruska, Jim Potts, Mike Grzebienowski, Fred Zeckman, and Joe Mowad, with the latter doubling as equipment manager.

The schedule shows eight home games, with trips to Steubenville Central and Boardman. These two foes, along with Alliance and Warren Western Reserve, gave East Liverpool the most trouble last season, and should again be the roughest games on the schedule.

The schedule:

Sept. 6—Cleveland West
Sept. 13—Youngstown Woodrow Wilson
Sept. 20—Berea Mid-Park
Sept. 28—at Steubenville Central
Oct. 4—Dayton Roosevelt
Oct. 21—Warren Western Reserve
Oct. 18—Martins Ferry
Oct. 25—at Boardman
Nov. 1—Bellaire St. John's
Nov. 8—Alliance

Orioles Split, Trail By 5½

Earl Wilson Pitches, Bats Tigers Past Chicago, 3-0

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

With the bases loaded in the ninth inning, the Baltimore Orioles ran out of Dave McNallys, missing another chance to gain ground on the Detroit Tigers, who had more then enough Earl Wilson.

Baltimore had cut another half game off Detroit's lead when McNally belted a grand slam homer and a run-scoring single and hurled a six-hit 8-2 victory over Oakland in the opener of their twi-night double header Monday.

But with three men on and one out in the ninth of the nightcap, the Orioles had used up their McNally and Diego Segui pitched out of the jam to give the A's a 2-0 triumph.

Still the Orioles had a chance to cut into Detroit's lead, until Wilson swung his bat and arm, driving in two runs behind his own six-hitter for the Tigers' 3-0 decision over the Chicago White Sox.

In other games, Boston and Jim Lonborg blanked Cleveland 3-0, Minnesota beat Washington 4-2 before losing 1-0 in 13 innings, and California bombed the New York Yankees 10-2 after dropping a 6-1 verdict.

McNally was just too much for Oakland in the opener as he won his ninth consecutive game since the All-Star break for a 17-8 record and became the first Oriole to drive in five runs in one game this season.

The first slam of his career, and second homer this season, capped a seven-run explosion in the first inning after Brooks Robinson cracked his 15th homer with a man on. McNally singled home the last Baltimore run in the third as the Orioles won their fourth game in five starts.

But any facsimile of the McNally bat was missing against Jim Hunter and then Segui in the second game.

Hunter, 11-11, working on a three-hitter, entered the ninth with a 2-0 lead built when Danny Cater singled home an unearned run in the seventh after Robinson's error and reliever Pete Richert balked home a run in the eighth.

When the first two Orioles singled in the ninth, Segui came in and his one-out walk loaded the bases. But this time the Orioles left them loaded as Elrod Hendricks struck out and Dave Johnson grounded out.

Wilson, performing before a standing room crowd of 42,808 in the White Sox' last of nine games in Milwaukee—they won only one—was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded in the second inning. He singled in another tally in the seventh.

Wilson evened his record at 11-11 as he ended Detroit's four-game losing streak that had cut the Tigers' lead from 7½ to five games from Friday to Monday.

Lonborg, 4-5 plagued first by knee trouble and then shoulder problems this season, hurled a three-hitter and struck out nine for his first complete game.

Tim Cullen's one-out, run-scoring single off Ron Perranoski gave Washington its split after teammate Frank Bertaina allowed only two hits for the first 11 innings and the Twins' Jim Perry gave two in nine innings.

Minnesota won the opener with four runs in the seventh inning, the last two on Rich Reese' infield dribbler.

Fritz Peterson, 7-9, who had lost six in a row, yielded only four hits and drove in three runs with a double and a sacrifice fly for the Yankees' fifth straight victory and 13th in 16 games.

But Jim McGlothlin, 9-12, backed by a 13-hit attack, drubbed the Yankees in the nightcap with a four-hitter, one of them Roy White's homer.

New York, with a fourth doubleheader in five days scheduled today, used shortstop Gene Michael on the mound in his first major league pitching appearance. He gave up five unearned runs.

Pirates' Blass Is 4-0 Winner

Mets' Rookie Breaks Ice, Blanks Cardinals By 1-0

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The first two runs the New York Mets scored for Jim McAndrews came a little too late . . . and a little too early. The next one came just in time.

McAndrew, shut out in his first four major league starts and beaten 13-3 in his fifth try after receiving an early two-run boost, finally broke the ice Monday night with a 1-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The 24-year-old right-hander completed a five-hitter against the National League leaders after the Mets broke a scoreless tie on Cleon Jones' sacrifice fly in the eighth inning.

That run gave McAndrew a total of three in his 38 1-3 innings in the majors.

Elsewhere, Gaylord Perry fired a one-hitter as San Francisco trimmed the Chicago Cubs 3-0; Pittsburgh blanked Atlanta 4-0 behind Steve Blass; Cincinnati edged Philadelphia 6-5 and Los Angeles shaded Houston 4-3.

McAndrew had the dubious distinction of making his major league debut against the Cardinals and Bob Gibson two months ago. He allowed only one run in six innings, but Gibson blanked the Mets 2-0.

In his next outing, the Met rookie lasted only 42-3 innings an lost 2-0 to Los Angeles' Mike Kekich, who tossed a one-hitter. He dropped a pair of 1-0 duels to San Francisco's Bob Bolin and Houston's Don Wilson in his third and fourth starts, then took on the Giants' Juan Marichal last Wednesday.

The Mets scored twice in the third inning for a 2-1 edge, but the shock proved too much for McAndrew. He was driven from the mound in a five-run fifth-inning deluge and tagged with his fifth straight setback.

Perry retired the first 19 batters he faced, gave up a single through the middle by Glenn Beckert in the seventh and then knocked off the last eight Cubs in order.

Willie Mays drove in two runs with a single and his 17th homer, assuring Perry's 13th victory in 24 decisions. Mays also doubled and scored in the ninth as the Giants won for the 13th time in their last 16 starts.

Blass scattered nine hits on the way to his 12th victory against five defeats and the Pirates capitalized on Atlanta errors to pin the loss on Milt Pappas.

Maury Wills singled in the first inning, stole second and continued to third on catcher Joe Torre's overthrow before scoring the only run Blass needed on a sacrifice fly by Matty Alou.

Jim Beauchamp slammed a two-run homer in the fourth inning and drove in the Reds' winning run with an infield single in the seventh, offsetting a grand slam homer by Philadelphia slugger Rich Allen.

Reliever Clay Carroll blanked the Phillies over the last five innings to pick up the victory. Tony Perez lashed four of the Reds' 13 hits and teammate Pete Rose extended his hitting streak to 16 games.

Tom Haller's run-scoring triple in the sixth staked Dodgers' starter Don Sutton to a 4-1 lead, but he needed last out help from Jack Binningham in the ninth after Bob Aspromonte tripled to key a two-run Houston comeback.

2 Local Men Place High In Golf Play

Two local golfers placed in the top ten of the annual National Post Office Golf Tournament held last week at Bretton Woods, N. H.

From a field of 215, David Jackson and Robert Dusock, both of East Liverpool finished sixth and eighth respectively.

The tournament was won by Paul Staron of Meridian, Conn.

Seventeen from the Tri-State area competed with Steve Yurchey of Bridgeville, Pa. finishing fourth in the 54-hole tournament which ended Friday.

During a business session the National Post Office Golf Association discussed bringing the tournament to Ohio in 1970. Next year's site has not yet been announced.

Nine Lettermen Returning

Despite only nine returning lettermen, East Liverpool High football coach Bob McNea is optimistic about the 1968 season.

"Returning lettermen don't mean a thing", McNea says. "Some people give out more letters than others. This team is comparable to last year's squad, and the defense is as good as any team here the last several years."

McNea admits that the center of the offensive line will lack experience. But, he says "we're pointing for a 10-0 season, as we do every year." The Potter coach wouldn't single out any particularly tough opponent, but he said he didn't think he'd have any trouble getting the team "up" for Warren Western Reserve, the only team to beat East Liverpool in 1967.

TO BALANCE the lack of lettermen, McNea notes that there is an outstanding crop of sophomores, though none is expected to start right away.

Dan Cunningham, 5-9, 150, a senior letterman, is the probable starting quarterback, though John Johnson, 6-2, 170, another senior lettermen, is giving him a battle. "Johnson is our best end, so he may end up there", McNea says. Johnson lettered as an end last season. Ralph Seevers, 5-10, 170, a sophomore, is regarded as a fine quarterbacking prospect.

Senior letterman Jim Musuraca 6-0, 190, will be the fullback, backed by senior Herb Purton, 5-10, 170. Starting halfbacks in early drills are senior lettermen Tom Chambers, 5-10, 170, and Nelson (Sonny) Clark, 6-0, 160. Clark lettered as a defensive back a year ago. Senior Floyd (Bub) Cranston, 5-11, 170, and Steve Williams, a speedy sophomore up from East Junior, are reserve halfbacks, with sophomore Joe March, 6-0, 150, tabbed as an excellent receiver, slated for duty at halfback or split end.

LETTERMAN senior Jerry Christian, 6-4, 195, is the probable starter at tight end, but he may play split end at times with junior Jack Melvin, 6-0, 175, manning the right end spot. Junior Jim (El) Parson, 5-7, 130, is a leading split end candidate, with another outstanding sophomore, Jim Moore, 6-1, 180, pegged for duty there also.

Pro Football Teams Begin Cutting Rosters

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The two New Orleans veterans were among more than 75 players turned loose by the pro football clubs Monday—the final day for meeting the latest league roster limits.

National Football League teams were required to cut their rosters to 49, American League teams to 43. And several clubs slashed away with gusto.

Kansas City released seven players, including four of its top 10 draft picks, while Chicago, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Washington and New Orleans of the NFL and New York of the AFL all released a half dozen players or more.

"I think they made a mistake," charged Lusteg, who said he had been expecting it since missing a 30-yard field goal last Friday that cost the Dolphins a chance to beat Boston in the last seconds of an exhibition.

"I don't want to make it seem like I'm poor-mouthing," said Lusteg, "but I've studied kicking a long time, I had a good record last season and I think Coach (George) Wilson made a mistake."

In addition to releasing Logan, free safety acquired from Dallas in the NFL expansion draft, and Rissmiller, Philadelphia's No. 2 draft choice in 1965, New Orleans also cut six others, including No. 3 draft choice Ronnie South of West Texas State.

Kansas City went a step farther in releasing once-promising talent. It let go No. 2 draft pick Mike Livingston, a star quarterback at Southern Methodist; No. 4 Mickey McCarthy, tight end from Texas Christian; No. 7 Sammy Grezaffi, defensive back from Louisiana State, and No. 9 Wayne McClure, linebacker from Mississippi.

Two of the six released by San Francisco were draft choices—No. 7 Jerry Richardson, linebacker from Mississippi, and No. 8 Tommie Gray, a receiver from Morehead State.

Atlanta dropped tight end Duane Allen, a six-year NFL veteran claimed by the Falcons on waivers after his release by the Chicago Bears. Defensive end Bo Wood, who saw action in all 14 game last season, also was put on waivers.

The Minnesota Vikings cut five players, including former Canadian Football League star Willie Fleming, but used a little trickery to sneak rookie quarterback Bob Lee onto their taxi squad.

The Vikings said Lee, of the University of Pacific, had cleared waivers after being secretly placed on the list several weeks ago.

Fleming was trying a comeback in the NFL after staying out of football last season. But he had trouble regaining his old bounce and he missed a week of training camp because of a virus.

The Pittsburgh Steelers cut seven players, including veterans Jerry Mazzanti, a defensive end, center Bob Whitlow and flanker Jerry Marion, while nine-year defensive tackle Jim Prestel was among nine turned loose by Washington.

The Redskins also dropped defensive back Jim Shorter, starting his seventh season as a pro; defensive ends Willie Adams and Bill Briggs, both in their third year, and second-year men Trenton Jackson, a flanker, and Bruce Alford, a kicker.

Jim Harris, the New York season, was released along with seven other Jets.

The Boston Patriots trimmed five, including third year backs Bob Cappadona and Bill Johnson and second year defensive lineman Ed Toner.

The Chicago Bears released seven and the Philadelphia Eagles cut four, but refused to name them. However, Bears' coach Jim Wilson said, "We didn't cut any regulars and there were no surprises."

Defensive end Tom Day was signed a contract and fullback Charley Bivins and five others placed on waivers by the Buffalo Bills.

Bills' Coach Joe Collier said the other names were being withheld until he talked to each man in hopes he would stay on the taxi squad.

Day, 33, rejoined the club after a season with San Deigo. He was cut by the Chargers two weeks ago and then by the Atlanta Falcons.

Bivins joned the Bills last October and was used as a reserve fullback. He suffered a pulled groin muscle this summer.

Better Than Last Year, Lamonica Says Of Team

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

OAKLAND (AP) — Last year, the Oakland Raiders won the American Football League championship with a 13-1 league record and a 40-7 crushing of Houston in the title game.

"We might have been premature in winning the championship last year," said Rauch, the AFL Coach of the Year. "We are still a young team that must gain experience and we could use some more reserve strength."

Why were the Raiders so dominant last year? One reason, says Rauch: Daryle Lamonica.

The Raider quarterback, acquired at the start of the 1967 season from Buffalo, "had a better season than anyone dreamed he would," says Rauch. "He had a fantastic year."

Lamonica, the AFL Player of the Year, threw 30 touchdown passes, tops in the league, and clicked on more than half the 425 passes he threw.

But statistics don't begin to tell the story, says Rauch. Lamonica also showed tremendous leadership ability, the coach says, although he was new with the team.

"There's no question we're a better football team than we were last year," he said. "We're more mature. Several of our starters are now five, six and seven-year veterans."

Though the Raiders are laden with returning starters — as many as 21 of the 22 on offense and defense may start on opening day — Rauch points to the excellent work he got from reserves when injuries struck last year.

"It seems like every time someone was moved into a starting role, he had a great day," said Rauch. "Dave Grayson started several games at cornerback and safety and Warren Powers started at safety a couple of times. Both had outstanding games."

Replacing him is Carleton Oats, who joins Ben Davidson, Isaac Lassiter and Dan Birdwell on the front line. Bill Lasky, Gus Otto and Dan Conners are the linebackers while Kent McCloughan and Willie Brown are the defensive backs with Howie Williams and Rodger Bird at safety.

The Raiders have been cheered by the apparent return to shape of running back Clem Daniels, the AFL's top career ground gainer, who was injured late last season.

Hewritt Dixon is the other running back. Last year he was among the top 10 in the league in both rushing and pass receiving. Pete Banaszak did a fine job filling in for Daniels and Larry Todd is another top rushing reserve.

Rauch cautions that it is a long trip to another Super Bowl — the Raiders lost to Green Bay 33-14 last year — but reflects. "We've tasted it a little, and we'd like to get back again."

D & J Service Wins Pin League Rolloff

D & J Service won the rolloff in the Friendly Summerette League.

Members of the winning team included Mable Richards, Hattie Brewer, Ruth Adkins and Lou Liberatore.

Pin League To Meet

2 Share Lead In Ohio Open

FAIRBORN, Ohio (AP)—Professionals George Bxelino of Youngstown and Frank Wharton of Akron shared the first round lead in the Ohio Open Golf Tournament Monday.

Both shot 69s for the first 18 holes of the 72-hole medal play tourney at the Greene County Country Club here. Par is 72.

After today's play the field of 180 will be trimmed to the low 60 professionals and the low 12 amateurs. Play winds up Wednesday.

One stroke behind the leaders Monday were Paul Thomas of Zanesville, Bob Carson of Grove City and Chuck Licher of Fairborn. Two strokes off were Mike Podolski of Troy and John Dalrymple of Sylvania.

Norway Takes First Step In Possible Boycott

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The possibility of a boycott of the Mexico City Olympics took a big step toward reality Monday night when Norway's Olympic Committee voted to break all sports relations with the five occupation powers in Czechoslovakia until further notice.

The committee said it fully supporter the stand taken earlier by the Norwegian Sports Federation. The committee said it would inform the International Olympic Committee of its decision.

Chairman of the committee, President Joergen Jahre, had said it was "unthinkable" for Norway, top nation in the Grenoble winter Olympics, to compete against athletes from the five occupation powers in view of the situation in Czechoslovakia.

North Carolina Wins In Pony World Series

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Greensboro, N.C., went undefeated and grabbed the 1968 Pony League World Series championship.

Homer's by Phil Wise and Don McNeal in the second inning gave Greensboro a 4-1 win over Covina, Calif., Monday.

Covina sole run came in the sixth when Jeff Migdal scored on a hit, two walks and Dempsey's wild pitch.

Pro Football Teams Begin Cutting Rosters

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The two New Orleans veterans were among more than 75 players turned loose by the pro football clubs Monday—the final day for meeting the latest league roster limits.

National Football League teams were required to cut their rosters to 49, American League teams to 43. And several clubs slashed away with gusto.

Kansas City released seven players, including four of its top 10 draft picks, while Chicago, San Francisco, Pittsburgh, Washington and New Orleans of the NFL and New York of the AFL all released a half dozen players or more.

"I think they made a mistake," charged Lusteg, who said he had been expecting it since missing a 30-yard field goal last Friday that cost the Dolphins a chance to beat Boston in the last seconds of an exhibition.

"I don't want to make it seem like I'm poor-mouthing," said Lusteg, "but I've studied kicking a long time, I had a good record last season and I think Coach (George) Wilson made a mistake."

In addition to releasing Logan, free safety acquired from Dallas in the NFL expansion draft, and Rissmiller, Philadelphia's No. 2 draft choice in 1965, New Orleans also cut six others, including No. 3 draft choice Ronnie South of West Texas State.

Kansas City went a step farther in releasing once-promising talent. It let go No. 2 draft pick Mike Livingston, a star quarterback at Southern Methodist; No. 4 Mickey McCarthy, tight end from Texas Christian; No. 7 Sammy Grezaffi, defensive back from Louisiana State, and No. 9 Wayne McClure, linebacker from Mississippi.

Two of the six released by San Francisco were draft choices—No. 7 Jerry Richardson, linebacker from Mississippi, and No. 8 Tommie Gray, a receiver from Morehead State.

Atlanta dropped tight end Duane Allen, a six-year NFL veteran claimed by the Falcons on waivers after his release by the Chicago Bears. Defensive end Bo Wood, who saw action in all 14 game last season, also was put on waivers.

The Minnesota Vikings cut five players, including former Canadian Football League star Willie Fleming, but used a little trickery to sneak rookie quarterback Bob Lee onto their taxi squad.

The Vikings said Lee, of the University of Pacific, had cleared waivers after being secretly placed on the list several weeks ago.

Fleming was trying a comeback in the NFL after staying out of football last season. But he had trouble regaining his old bounce and he missed a week of training camp because of a virus.

The Pittsburgh Steelers cut seven players, including veterans Jerry Mazzanti, a defensive end, center Bob Whitlow and flanker Jerry Marion, while nine-year defensive tackle Jim Prestel was among nine turned loose by Washington.

The Redskins also dropped defensive back Jim Shorter, starting his seventh season as a pro; defensive ends Willie Adams and Bill Briggs, both in their third year, and second-year men Trenton Jackson, a flanker, and Bruce Alford, a kicker.

Jim Harris, the New York season, was released along with seven other Jets.

The Boston Patriots trimmed five, including third year backs Bob Cappadona and Bill Johnson and second year defensive lineman Ed Toner.

The Chicago Bears released seven and the Philadelphia Eagles cut four, but refused to name them. However, Bears' coach Jim Wilson said, "We didn't cut any regulars and there were no surprises."

Defensive end Tom Day was signed a contract and fullback Charley Bivins and five others placed on waivers by the Buffalo Bills.

Bills' Coach Joe Collier said the other names were being withheld until he talked to each man in hopes he would stay on the taxi squad.

Day, 33, rejoined the club after a season with San Deigo. He was cut by the Chargers two weeks ago and then by the Atlanta Falcons.

Bivins joned the Bills last October and was used as a reserve fullback. He suffered a pulled groin muscle this summer.

Better Than Last Year, Lamonica Says Of Team

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

OAKLAND (AP) — Last year, the Oakland Raiders won the American Football League championship with a 13-1 league record and a 40-7 crushing of Houston in the title game.

Raider Coach John Rauch thinks it may have been a mistake.

"We might have been premature in winning the championship last year," said Rauch, the AFL Coach of the Year. "We are still a young team that must gain experience and we could use some more reserve strength."

Why were the Raiders so dominant last year? One reason, says Rauch: Daryle Lamonica.

The Raider quarterback, acquired at the start of the 1967 season from Buffalo, "had a better season than anyone dreamed he would," says Rauch. "He had a fantastic year."

Lamonica, the AFL Player of the Year, threw 30 touchdown passes, tops in the league, and clicked on more than half the 425 passes he threw.

But statistics don't begin to tell the story, says Rauch. Lamonica also showed tremendous leadership ability, the coach says, although he was new with the team.

Rauch speaks cautiously about the Raiders' chances of repeating but does admit they should be favored.

Lamonica is less bashful about the possibility of a second straight championship.

"There's no question we're a better football team than we were last year," he said. "We're more mature. Several of our starters are now five, six and seven-year veterans."

Though the Raiders are laden with returning starters — as many as 21 of the 22 on offense and defense may start on opening day — Rauch points to the excellent work he got from reserves when injuries struck last year.

"It seems like every time someone was moved into a starting role, he had a great day," said Rauch. "Dave Grayson started several games at cornerback and safety and Warren Powers started at safety a couple of times. Both had outstanding games."

The only starter from 1967 who is not likely to be ready when the season starts is All-League defensive tackle Tom Keating, who is recuperating from a second operation on the achilles tendon of his right knee.

Replacing him is Carleton Oats, who joins Ben Davidson, Isaac Lassiter and Dan Birdwell on the front line. Bill Lasky, Gus Otto and Dan Conners are the linebackers while Kent McCloughan and Willie Brown are the defensive backs with Howie Williams and Rodger Bird at safety.

The Raiders have been cheered by the apparent return to shape of running back Clem Daniels, the AFL's top career ground gainer, who was injured late last season.

Hewritt Dixon is the other running back. Last year he was among the top 10 in the league in both rushing and pass receiving. Pete Banaszak did a fine job filling in for Daniels and Larry Todd is another top rushing reserve.

Billy Cannon is the tight end with Fred Biletnikoff and Bill Miller the outside receivers. Warren Wells has looked extremely sharp at split end, too.

Rauch cautions that it is a long trip to another Super Bowl — the Raiders lost to Green Bay 33-14 last year — but reflects "We've tasted it a little, and we'd like to get back again."

D & J Service Wins Pin League Rolloff

D & J Service won the rolloff in the Friendly Summerette League.

Members of the winning team included Mable Richards, Hattie Brewer, Ruth Adkins and Lou Liberatore.

Pin League To Meet

2 Share Lead In Ohio Open

FAIRBORN, Ohio (AP)—Professionals George Bxelino of Youngstown and Frank Wharton of Akron shared the first round lead in the Ohio Open Golf Tournament Monday.

Both shot 69s for the first 18 holes of the 72-hole medal play tourney at the Greene County Country Club here. Par is 72.

After today's play the field of 180 will be trimmed to the low 60 professionals and the low 12 amateurs. Play winds up Wednesday.

One stroke behind the leaders Monday were Paul Thomas of Zanesville, Bob Carson of Grove City and Chuck Licher of Fairborn. Two strokes off were Mike Podolski of Troy and John Dalrymple of Sylvania.

Norway Takes First Step In Possible Boycott

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The possibility of a boycott of the Mexico City Olympics took a big step toward reality Monday night when Norway's Olympic Committee voted to break all sports relations with the five occupation powers in Czechoslovakia until further notice.

The committee said it fully supporter the stand taken earlier by the Norwegian Sports Federation. The committee said it would inform the International Olympic Committee of its decision.

Chairman of the committee, President Joergen Jahre, had said it was "unthinkable" for Norway, top nation in the Grenoble winter Olympics, to compete against athletes from the five occupation powers in view of the situation in Czechoslovakia.

North Carolina Wins In Pony World Series

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Greensboro, N.C., went undefeated and grabbed the 1968 Pony League World Series championship.

Homer's by Phil Wise and Don McNeal in the second inning gave Greensboro a 4-1 win over Covina, Calif., Monday.

Covina sole run came in the sixth when Jeff Migdal scored on a hit, two walks and Dempsey's wild pitch.

Greensboro won all four games it played in the series while Covina finished with a 3-2 record.

NOTICE OF HEARING
THE STATE OF OHIO, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, SS
IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION
Christina Kay Hughes
To: Francis Clark Hughes
Address Unknown
IN THE PROBATE COURT
NOTICE OF HEARING
CASE NO. 2022

You are hereby notified that on the 8th day of August 1968 a petition was filed in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, for the adoption of Christina Kay Hughes who was born December 10, 1961, at East Liverpool, Ohio.

Said petition contains the allegations that you, as the father of said child have wilfully failed to properly support and maintain said child for a period of more than two years immediately preceding the filing of this petition.

If at the time of the hearing it is found that the allegations of the petition are true, your consent to the adoption of the above named child will not be required.

Hearing on said petition will be on the 9th day of October, 1968 at 9:15 o'clock A.M., in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, at the Court House, Lisbon, Ohio.

WITNESS my signature and the seal of said Court at Lisbon, Ohio, this 14th day of August 1968.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of my father, Hobart H. Shields who passed away one year ago today, Aug. 27. When the evening shades are falling, And we sit here all alone, To our hearts there comes a longing, If you could only come home. They say time heals all sorrow, And helps one to forget, But time so far has only proved, How much we miss you yet. Although your soul's at rest, And free from care and pain; It would seem like heaven, If we had you home again. God gives us strength to carry on, And courage to heal the blow, But what it meant to lose you, No one will ever know. Beside your grave we often stand, Our hearts both crushed and sore, But in the gloom words came; Not lost but gone before. God knows the tears were shed, Then He whispers, "He only sleeps, Your loved one is not dead. So we'll be brave my dear, And pray to God each day, That when He calls us home to you, Your smile will guide our way. Sadly missed by Daughter, Gladys.

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE take this opportunity of thanking the many friends who offered sympathy during our recent bereavement; also those who sent floral offerings, especially Dr. J. M. Brand, Rev. Ralph Mitchell, the nurses and aides of 2 East at City Hospital, Fox Nursing Home, Arner Funeral Home and Citizens Drug Store. The Family of Mrs. Zula Miller.

Many thanks to all those who helped during the recent loss of our mother and grandmother. A special thanks to the nurses and nurses aides on first floor at City Hospital and to Dr. J. Fraser Jackson. — The Family of Ruth B. Bartram.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF HEARING
THE STATE OF OHIO, COLUMBIANA COUNTY, SS
IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION
Christina Kay Hughes
To: Francis Clark Hughes
Address Unknown
IN THE PROBATE COURT
NOTICE OF HEARING
CASE NO. 2022

You are hereby notified that on the 8th day of August 1968 a petition was filed in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, Ohio, for the adoption of Christina Kay Hughes who was born December 10, 1961, at East Liverpool, Ohio.

Said petition contains the allegations that you, as the father of said child have wilfully failed to properly support and maintain said child for a period of more than two years immediately preceding the filing of this petition.

If at the time of the hearing it is found that the allegations of the petition are true, your consent to the adoption of the above named child will not be required.

Hearing on said petition will be on the 9th day of October, 1968 at 9:15 o'clock A.M., in the Probate Court of Columbiana County, at the Court House, Lisbon, Ohio.

WITNESS my signature and the seal of said Court at Lisbon, Ohio, this 14th day of August 1968.

2 IN MEMORIAM

IN loving memory of my father, Hobart H. Shields who passed away one year ago today, Aug. 27. When the evening shades are falling, And we sit here all alone, To our hearts there comes a longing, If you could only come home. They say time heals all sorrow, And helps one to forget, But time so far has only proved, How much we miss you yet. Although your soul's at rest, And free from care and pain; It would seem like heaven, If we had you home again. God gives us strength to carry on, And courage to heal the blow, But what it meant to lose you, No one will ever know. Beside your grave we often stand, Our hearts both crushed and sore, But in the gloom words came; Not lost but gone before. God knows the tears were shed, Then He whispers, "He only sleeps, Your loved one is not dead. So we'll be brave my dear, And pray to God each day, That when He calls us home to you, Your smile will guide our way. Sadly missed by Daughter, Gladys.

3 CARD OF THANKS

WE take this opportunity of thanking the many friends who offered sympathy during our recent bereavement; also those who sent floral offerings, especially Dr. J. M. Brand, Rev. Ralph Mitchell, the nurses and aides of 2 East at City Hospital, Fox Nursing Home, Arner Funeral Home and Citizens Drug Store. The Family of Mrs. Zula Miller.

Many thanks to all those who helped during the recent loss of our mother and grandmother. A special thanks to the nurses and nurses aides on first floor at City Hospital and to Dr. J. Fraser Jackson. — The Family of Ruth B. Bartram.

Junior Editors Quiz on ASTEROIDS

QUESTION: What are the asteroids composed of?

* * * *

ANSWER: Look at our little chart of the solar system (lower right). Notice that the orbits of Mercury, Venus, Earth and Mars are quite close — but there is a wide gap between those of Mars and Jupiter. Astronomers used to wonder why there was no planet in this area. Then, in 1810, a tiny dot of light was seen — finally, many more. These are the asteroids or tiny planets, a great many of which orbit the sun between Mars and Jupiter. Some believe they may have resulted from the breakup of a former planet; others disagree. The orbits of these little bodies are irregular and some of them wander beyond the asteroid belt. A large asteroid named Icarus was detected recently in an orbit which it was predicted would pass close to the earth. Many people worried whether it might strike us and cause great damage. But on June 4, 1968, Icarus whizzed safely by, 4 million miles away. Because an asteroid is too small for gravity to pull it into a sphere, these bodies are thought to be irregular in shape; they are composed of rock and metal.

(Danny Hayes of Collinsville, Ill., wins a prize for this question. You can win $10 cash plus AP's handsome World Yearbook if your question, mailed on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper, is selected for a prize.)

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

A.—Try revolving the neck of the bottle slowly in the heat of a burning match or cigarette lighter. The heat will expand the neck of the bottle, thereby releasing the stopper.

Q.—How can I make cake soap last longer?

A.—By applying a solution of oxalic acid, being sure to absorb the acid immediately afterward with blotting paper. Note: Best to use rubber gloves while working with oxalic acid, and don't splash any on yourself.

Q.—What can I do about heat marks on my furniture?

A.—Try camphorated oil, stroking lightly over the spot with a cloth moistened in this oil, then rubbing immediately with a clean dry cloth. Do not use a linty cloth, as fuzz might stick to the wood. The final step is to rewax.
